The PENNSYLVANIA GAZETTE.

Containing the Freſheſt Advices, Foreign and Domeſtic.

By the Snow Lord Dunlace, Captain Manford, arrived at New-York in a ſhort Paſſage from Belfaſt, we have the following important Advices, viz.

From the LONDON GAZETTE.

Relation of the KING of PRUSSIA's March into Sileſia, and of the Victory gained on the 15th of Auguſt, near Lignitz, over the Auſtrian Army, under the Command of General Laudohn.

ON the 3d of Auguſt the Army marched from the Camp of Dallwitz, on the Borders of the Elbe, and arrived on the 7th at Buntzlau, keeping conſtantly cloſe on the Side of Marſhal Daun's Army. We made about 100 Priſoners at the Paſſage of the Roher, and halted in this Camp to give ſome Reſt to the Troops, which, in 5 Days, had marched 19 German Miles.

On the 9th the Army got to Goldberg; that of the Auſtrians were in march, and we accompanied them to Hohendorff, where the King encamped. The Corps under M. Laudohn, occupied the Heights of Prauſnitz before our Arrival, and M. de Beck covered the March of the Enemy, from his Poſt of Wolffsberg.

On the 10th, the King took Poſſeſſion of the Camp of Lignitz; and the Army of the Enemy occupied all the Ground between Parchwitz and Coſſendau; ſo that Marſhal Daun, with his Army, formed the Center, and occupied the Heights of Wahlſtadt and Hochkirk. M. Laudohn, with his Army, covered the Ground between Jeſchkendorff and Coſchitz; and General Nauthendorff that of the Heights of Parchwitz; and M. de Beck, who formed the Left, extended his Troops beyond Coſſendau.

This advantageous Poſition of the Enemy, prevented our paſſing the Katzbach and the Schartzwaſſer. The King's Army marched in the Night of the 11th to turn the Enemy, and to reach Jauer. At Break of Day the Columns were already near the Village of Hohendorff, from whence a new Camp at Prauſnitz was diſcovered; and Advice was received by ſome Priſoners, that it was M. de Laſcy's Corps, which was juſt arrived from Lauban. The Army immediately paſſed the Katzbach to attack him. M. de Laſcy made his Diſpoſitions with ſo much Skill, and knew ſo well how to avail himſelf of the Advantages that the Ground gave him, that he retreated to Marſhal Daun, without our being able to attack him with any Proſpect of Succeſs. He filed off by the low Grounds, and poſted himſelf upon the Heights of Hennersdorff, which covered Jauer, before our Army, which was ſtopt by the Defiles, could get thither. Both Armies encamped; the King's at Sichau, and that of the Enemy's at Hermſdorff and Schluap.

The next Day Attempts were made for turning the Enemy on the Side of the Mountains, by paſſing at Pomſen and Jagersdorff. The Roads might have been practicable for the Army, but they being ſo ſteep, the Ammunition Waggons could not be brought on; and therefore the Attempt was laid aſide. On the 13th we went back to our Camp at Lignitz, and Marſhal Daun, with the Generals Laudohn, Laſcy, and Beck, came to occupy his former Poſition behind the Katzbach. There we heard that the Ruſſians had laid a Bridge at Auras, and that Count Czernicheff was to paſs it the ſame Day with 24,000 Men. It was ſuſpected beſides, that the Enemy had ſome Deſign upon us. Troops which have been a long Time oppoſite to each other, can reciprocally gueſs at each other's Deſigns; the Method uſed by the Enemy's Generals grows familiar, and the leaſt Motion they make, diſcloſes their Deſigns.

Had we waited for the Enemy at our Camp at Lignitz, M. de Laſcy would have paſſed the Katzbach, in order to advance upon our Right, Marſhal Daun would probably have attacked our Front, and M. Laudohn would have fallen upon our Left, poſſeſſing himſelf at the ſame Time of the Heights of Pfaffendorff. Theſe Conſiderations were the Motives of the March we made on the 14th, to put ourſelves in Order of Battle on the aforeſaid Heights, which changed the Scene of Operations, and muſt diſconcert the Diſpoſitions the Enemy had made from the Nature of the Ground.

Scarce had we taken this Poſition, when we were informed, about Two o' Clock in the Morning, that M. de Laudohn was in full March, and that his Columns advanced by Bennowitz. Whereupon our Armies ſeparated into two Bodies, our Right remained upon the Ground, where it had been formed, to obſerve Marſhal Daun, and to prevent him from advancing from the Schwartzwaſſer, and through Lignitz. Sixteen Battalions, and 30 Squadrons turned about, in order to fall upon the Corps under Laudohn.

Near Three o' Clock the Action began; the Pruſſians attacked, and drove the Auſtrians, fighting almoſt to the Katzbach, where the Left halted, and it was not thought adviſeable to puſh on more vigorouſly, that we might be able to ſuccour our Right, in caſe M. Daun ſucceeded in advancing from Lignitz. His Army attempted it ſeveral Times, and his Want of ſucceeding was owing to the Diſadvantage of the Ground, and to his Columns being expoſed to the Fire of our Batteries.

In this Action the Enemy loſt upwards of 10,000 Men; two of their Generals, 80 Officers, and more than 5000 Men are Priſoners, 82 Pieces of Cannon, and 23 Pair of Colours. The Enemy left about 2000 Men upon the Spot, without reckoning the Wounded; but their Loſs by Deſertion was equal to that in the Field. We marched immediately after the Action, to Parchwitz, where we paſſed the Defile that had been ſo well diſputed. And Marſhal Daun, at the ſame Time detached Prince Lowenſtein with the Reſerve, and M. de Beck to join Count Czernicheff. The King began his March on the 16th for Neumarck. The Ruſſians have repaſſed the Oder at Auras, and Prince Lowenſtein has retired on the Side of Jauer, ſo that our Attention is fixed at preſent upon opening the Communication with Breſlau.

In Juſtice to the Alacrity and Bravery of the Troops it muſt be ſaid, that they engaged with an heroical Spirit, after ſuffering the Extremity of Fatigue; and all, who were concerned, diſtinguiſhed themſelves. We have loſt no general Officer. A Liſt will be given without Delay, of the Names of the Officers killed and wounded, together with thoſe of the Auſtrians made Priſoners. Our Loſs is inconſiderable; we have but 500 killed, and 1200 wounded on our Side. It is to be hoped, that this ſucceſsful Event will be attended with Conſequences of ſtill greater Advantage."

Oſnabrug, Auguſt 13. The Account of the French having Poſſeſſion of this Place, is without Foundation.

Paris, Auguſt 15. Scarce a Day paſſes without receiving ſome Courier, either from Foreign Courts, or from our Army in Germany. Things are in ſuch a Situation there, that it ſeems the Month of Auguſt cannot paſs away without ſome Action, which muſt be deciſive with Regard to the Remainder of the Campaign. However, we cannot as yet imagine when, nor in what Manner, the Troubles and Diſorders of this Age will be terminated.

LONDON,

Auguſt 30. His Royal Highneſs the Duke is ſo much mended, that we greatly pleaſe ourſelves with the Hopes of a ſpeedy and perfect Recovery.

The Caſe of General Count Laudohn was very ſingular; ſince it was impoſſible for him to avoid fighting the King of Pruſſia, but by running upon the Army of Prince Henry; and the poor Remains of his Forces are at preſent expoſed to the light armed Troops of both the Pruſſian Armies.

According to Letters from Liſbon, the Exile of the King of Portugal's three natural Brothers, whoſe Credit ſeemed to be ſo well eſtabliſhed, is aſcribed to a Diſcovery of ſome Connections between them and the Friends of the late Duke d' Aveiro executed for High Treaſon.

A Letter from the Hague, of the 23d Inſtant, ſays, that a large Body of Ruſſians, which was arrived upon the Borders of Sileſia, in order to join General Laudohn, retreated immediately on that General's being defeated.

They write from Hamburgh, that an Attempt was made in the Night between the 12th and 13th Inſtant, to blow up the Magazine at Harburgh, in Hanover. About thirty French Emiſſaries, in a Veſſel, with ſome lighted Matches, were ſeen by the Centinel, coming up the Creek from the Elbe, whom he challenged, and no Anſwer being returned, he fired his Piece, which alarmed the Garriſon. The Incendiaries, finding they were diſcovered, retreated with the greateſt Precipitation.

We hear that the 2500 Land Forces actually embarking at Portſmouth, are deſtined for Carolina.

A Firſt Rate Man of War is building at Chatham, which will be the largeſt Ship in the Navy, and is to be called the Great-Britain.

Yeſterday 16 Horſe Tranſports fell down the River from the Red-Houſe, at Deptford, to Graveſend, to join ſeveral already there to carry Troops to Germany, the Embarkation of which begins on Monday next.

Forty Tranſports more are now taking in Stores off the Red-Houſe, to be ready for another large Embarkation in a few Days.

In private Yards, and His Majeſty's Yards of Deptford and Woolwich, 12 Ships of the Line are building, and will be ready for Launching before Chriſtmas.

According to Letters from Magdebourg of the 17th, Gen. Laudohn retreated with the ſhattered Remains of his Forces, towards Queben, in the greateſt Hurry and Confuſion. Theſe Letters add, that the heavy Artillery taken from the Auſtrians, on the 15th, would be of the utmoſt Service to the King of Pruſſia, as his Army was in ſome Want thereof.

Further ADVICES by the Snow Lord Dunluce.

From Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick's Head Quarters at Warbourg, Auguſt 11.

SINCE the Action of the 31ſt, we are encamped on the Heights of Warbourg, with the Dymel in our Front. The Enemy are on the oppoſite Heights, and ſeparated from us by the River. Nothing of Conſequence has happened lately between the reſpective Armies.

A few Days ago a large Body of the Enemy was detached towards Stadtbergen, a ſtrong Paſs which we occupy, as we do likewiſe all the others on the Dymel; but they were ſoon obliged to return, without having ſucceeded in their Attempt to get Poſſeſſion of it.

General Keilmanſegge is poſted with a Corps of Troops upon the Weſer near Beverungen; and Major-General Luckner has been ſent with ſome Battalions and Squadrons on the other Side of that River, to make head againſt the Detachments which Prince Xavier might puſh forward in thoſe Parts. And that General has had the good Fortune not only to drive back the Enemy's Detachments, that had advanced as far as Eimbeck, but Yeſterday Morning took their whole Detachments at Nordheim, conſiſting of 332 Men, Priſoners of War. Colonel Donop likewiſe at the ſame Time ſucceeded in his Attack on a Body of Two Thouſand Volunteers, detached by Marſhal Broglio into the Wood of Sababourg, in order to preſerve his Communication with Prince Xavier. And notwithſtanding the Enemy's advantageous Poſition in a very thick Wood, they were diſlodged from thence with the Loſs of about 500 Men in Killed, Wounded and Priſoners; and of three Pieces of Cannon, which were taken by the Pruſſian Huſſars.

Paris, Aug. 15. An Engliſh Squadron, compoſed of two Ships of the Line, and three Frigates, appeared the 28th ult. before the Iſle of Grouais, and at Ten the ſame Morning caſt Anchor in the Road. Commodore Harvey, who commanded the Squadron, immediately ſent an Officer to ſummon the Caſtle of St. Croix to ſurrender; and with the Summons a Menace, in caſe of Refuſal, of plundering the Iſland, and giving no Quarter to the Garriſon or Inhabitants. The Count de Venetoſi Poſciolini, who commanded for the King on the Iſland, and in the Caſtle, anſwered, that he was reſolved to defend them. Upon this Anſwer Capt. Harvey ordered up 18 Tranſports, eſcorted by ſome Frigates, who entered the Road next Morning; but the neceſſary Diſpoſitions being made for a good Defence, the good Countenance our People kept over-awed the Engliſh, and their Fleet ſoon retired, without making any Attack. The five Men of War fired a few Broadſides, which were anſwered by the Artillery from the Fort. They had ſome Men killed in one of their Long-boats. Hague Gazette.

LONDON, AUGUST 26.

This Morning, at Two o'Clock, Captain Forbes arrived Expreſs from Prince Ferdinand, with a Confirmation, together with the Particulars, of the Battle that was fought between his Pruſſian Majeſty and General Laudohn, on the 15th Inſtant, near Lignitz, in Sileſia.

We hear that (beſides the Advantages mentioned in the Paragraph from Hamburgh) all the Tents and Baggage of the Auſtrian Army fell into the Hands of the Pruſſians: And that Count Daun was near enough the Scene of Action to have aſſiſted General Laudohn, but declined it; which had occaſioned great Aſtoniſhment in the Pruſſian Camp.

Captain Forbes, we hear, likewiſe brings an Account, that Prince Henry of Pruſſia had fallen upon the Van-Guard of the Ruſſian Army, and defeated it.

He alſo brings Advice, that the Armies under Prince Ferdinand and M. Broglio were preparing for a general Engagement, an Account of which is hourly expected.

Yeſterday a Part of Colonel Vaughan's Regiment of Light Troops embarked at Portſmouth, for Guadaloupe; and this Day the other Part of the Regiment is to embark there for the ſame Place.

Two Thouſand Men of the Independent Companies embark at Portſmouth, with Colonel Vaughan's Regiment.

A ſtrong Report prevailed in Holland, when the Packet ſailed, that there had been an Engagement between Prince Ferdinand and M. Broglio, in which 40,000 Men were ſlain on both Sides; and that Prince Ferdinand remained Maſter of the Field of Battle.

A private Letter from the Hague, mentions a Report of a Battle between the French and the Allies, on the 19th or 20th Inſtant, but without giving us any Particulars, except that a Multitude of wounded Men had been brought into Francfort.

Eight Men of Elliot's Light Horſe, who were miſſing after the Defeat of the French, have ſince joined the Army; they purſued a Party of 25 Men, and loſt their Way, but have taken 14 of them Priſoners, with their Colours, and killed 7; the others made their Eſcape.

We are ſorry to acquaint the Public, that on Saturday Evening laſt an Expreſs arrived at Kenſington, from Windſor, with an Account, that his Royal Highneſs the Duke had been ſuddenly ſeized with the Dead Palſey.

Extract of a Letter from Portſmouth, Auguſt 24.

The Dragon, Captain Harvey, is arrived from the Bay, and brings an Account of the Arrival of Admiral Boſcawen, in the Namur, at Plymouth, and the Prince, Captain Peyton, from the Bay.

There is certain Advice that the French have been driven from Munden.

The Bruſſels Gazette gives us the following Concluſion of a Letter from the King of Pruſſia to Prince Ferdinand: "You complain of my recalling my 8 Squadrons; you ſpeak at your Eaſe; they are abſolutely neceſſary to me. Try to make Head as well as you can againſt the fiery Broglio. I leave the Count of Lufatia as a Matter of Amuſement to my Nephew, &c."

Freſh Advices from Bengal.

January 2, 1760. By a Ship from Manila we are informed, that a French Company's Ship was arrived there from the Iſlands, with an Account of their being in a moſt melancholy and diſtreſſed Situation for want of proper Succours from Europe; which they deſpaired of, as the French in Europe had been ſo unfortunate themſelves.

There is Advice over Land from the Eaſt-Indies, that Proviſions were ſo ſcarce with the French, that they were obliged to melt down their Plate, and even their Shoe and Knee Buckles, to obtain the Neceſſaries of Life.

Admiral Pocock does not come Home this Year; ſo that ſomething of Conſequence is thought to be going forward.

Capt. Francis Maclean, of the Royal Highlanders, is appointed Governor of Marigalante, with the Rank of Major in the Army. And Capt. Allan Maclean, of the New-York Independent Company, commands at Ticonderoga.

The French appear to have quite given over the Proſecution of their original War; and, with their unſucceſsful Attempts of invading us, and attacking Quebec, ſeem to have dropped every other Deſign but thoſe of defending themſelves, and getting Poſſeſſion, if they can, of His Majeſty's German Dominions.

DUBLIN, September 6.

The late Victory gained over the Auſtrians, commanded by General Laudohn, muſt give a great Turn to Affairs in Favour of the King of Pruſſia. There is now no detached Corps of his Enemies left to act, but Army is oppoſed to Army; the King of Pruſſia againſt Daun, Prince Henry againſt the Ruſſians, and Prince Ferdinand againſt the French; and there is an Army of Pruſſians near Dreſden, ſuperior to the united Forces of the Army of the Empire and the Duke of Wirtemberg's Troops, ſhould they join. The Ruſſians, by their Retreat, have leſſened his Difficulties; and whether it is owing to Jealouſies among the united Powers, or from whatever Cauſe, it is a great Thing in his Favour.---------There is, it is true, no Army, that we hear of, to oppoſe the Swedes; but whoever conſiders the little Progreſs they have made in the former Years, owing to the Differences among themſelves, will think there is little to be feared from them. There is now, therefore, no Doubt to be made but that the King of Pruſſia will, at the End of the Campaign, be in as good a Condition as at the End of the laſt; and his Enemies having ſtretched their Credit to the utmoſt Pitch to carry on this Campaign, there is little Likelihood of their being able to keep their Armies together another, and it is thought muſt be glad to come into reaſonable Terms.

Charles-Town (in South Carolina) October 11.

The only Articles of any Conſequence from Col. Byrd's Camp are, that four Traders and Pack-horſe Men arrived in ſaid Camp the 27th of Auguſt, who made their Eſcape from Fort Loudoun on the 1ſt, and reported, that they had Leave to come away, and the Garriſon would ſoon follow in Parties; that Colonel Byrd thereupon immediately ordered a Detachment of 300 Men, with ten Days Proviſion, under Major Lewis, on a Scout, and to go within 80 Miles of the Fort, hoping they might meet with and ſave many of the Men; that accordingly, on the 8th of September, the Little-Carpenter, who had left Fort Loudoun the 30th of Auguſt, with his Wife and Brother, two young Fellows and a Wench, under the Pretence of Hunting, and brought off Captain John Stuart, his Servant, William Shorey, the Interpreter, and one Johnſon, diſcovered their Tracks, returned upon them 5 Miles till he diſcovered the Scout, then went back and brought Captain Stuart, &c. to them, who happily thus got ſafe to the Camp September 14th.

That when Colonel Byrd was informed, that the Cherokees were going againſt Fort Prince-George, and that they intended to make one general Maſſacre of both Garriſons; in order to draw them off, he diſpatched one of the young Fellows that came with Attakullakulla, to alarm the Nation with an Account of the Virginia Forces being near. That the Indians intended to burn their Priſoners in View of Fort Prince-George, to intimidate that Garriſon, in caſe they did not deliver up that Fort ſoon. That the Little-Carpenter ſtill had good Intelligence of all that paſſed among his Countrymen; was determined to perſiſt in his Fidelity and Attachment to us; and, having about 80 Warriors that he could depend upon, would ſoon give ſome ſignal Proofs of both, of which we may brobably have the firſt Accounts from the Creek Nation.

We have had no Advices whatever of or from Fort Prince-George, ſince the 14th ult. now near a Month, although Expreſſes commonly come from thence in ſix Days.

On Monday laſt, 99 Catawba Indians came to Town, with eight of the Cherokee Scalps their Warriors took near Keowee on the 1ſt of June laſt, for which they claim a Bounty.

BOSTON, October 27.

We hear from Providence, in Rhode-Iſland, that laſt Sunday Morning they had there a very violent Gale of Wind at S. E. which raiſed the Tide above its uſual Height, and did great Damage to the Shipping, Wharffs and Stores there. It is ſaid the Loſs is computed at 100,000 l. Rhode-Iſland Currency. The Storm was very violent here the ſame Morning, and a Sloop, Captain Godwin, bound in from Halifax, had the Misfortune to run aſhore on Cape Ann, but the Peoples Lives ſaved. In the above Veſſel, which was but three Days from Halifax, came an Officer with Diſpatches for General Amherſt, which were brought thither by a Veſſel from London.

We alſo learn from Halifax by the above Veſſel, that his Excellency Governor LAWRENCE died there of an Inflammation in his Bowels, after ſix or ſeven Days Illneſs.

Saturday laſt arrived here Capt. Bradford in 26 Days from Quebec, and 15 from Iſle of Coudre; by him we learn, that there are between 4 and 5000 French to be ſent to France, who would not take the Oath of Allegiance, and that five Tranſports, with a Number of them on board, had got down the River as far as the Iſle of Coudre, in their Way to France: That the Repulſe and Racehorſe Frigates, and a large Cat, had gone to the Bay of Chaleurs, to take off the Inhabitants there, having carried with them a French Officer, with Orders from Governor Vaudreuil, to diſband all the Regulars, and make void all Commiſſions; but that if they ſhould not tamely ſubmit, 2 or 3 Schooners, with between 3 and 400 Regulars, which went under their Convoy, would ſoon compel them to do it: That the Garriſon had more Wood in the City than they could conſume this Seaſon: That the Articles of Capitulation ſent by Monſ. Vaudreuil to General Amherſt, while at Montreal, conſiſted of 62 in Number, 15 of which the General rejected; and that Captain Deming, of this Town, in going from Quebec to Montreal, had the Misfortune to fall overboard, and was drowned. And that a Number of French Deſerters, with ſome Engliſh, who had been in the Enemy's Service, having got a Boat, proceeded down the River a conſiderable Way, where they met with Captain Jenkins in a Schooner from this Place bound up to Quebec, of whom they artfully begged a Paſſage to Coudre, which being granted them, they got on board, where after being ſome Time, and finding themſelves too ſtrong for the Crew, they took Poſſeſſion of the Veſſel, and ſtood away for Gaſpee, but unluckily for them, off that Place they met with an Engliſh Frigate, who retook the Veſſel, and after taking out the Deſerters, allowed her to proceed on her Voyage to Quebec, where ſhe is ſafe arrived.

NEW-YORK, October 27.

[Tueſday laſt the General Aſſembly of this Province met here, purſuant to Prorogation; and on Wedneſday His Honour the Preſident was pleaſed to make the following SPEECH, viz.]

Gentlemen of the Council, and General Aſſembly,

YOU have had Time to feel the heavy Loſs this Province hath ſuſtained in the Death of the Lieutenant-Governor: A Gentleman whoſe extenſive Accompliſhments qualified him in a ſuperior Degree for the Duties of his Station.

SENSIBLE of my own Inability, I ſhould, with the greateſt Reluctance, have aſſumed the Reins of Government, at my advanced Age, had I not repoſed an entire Confidence in your Readineſs, to adviſe and ſupport me in every Meaſure for the Public Good; and that all Deficiencies on my Part, would be made up by your Aſſiſtance.

I AM happy in congratulating you on the glorious Succeſs of His Majeſty's Arms, under the Conduct of his Excellency General AMHERST, which has compleated the Conqueſt of the whole Country of Canada. It does the higheſt Honour to the General's Reputation, that he has put a Period to an Enterprize of ſuch Moment, with ſo little Effuſion of human Blood; and the Clemency with which he has, on this Occaſion, treated the Vanquiſhed, furniſhes a ſtriking Proof of the different Diſpoſition of the two Nations. The French for many Years paſt, meditating the Ruin of theſe Colonies, have not ſcrupled to encourage in the Savages, their Allies, a Spirit of the moſt brutal Inhumanity. No ſooner had the Engliſh recovered an Influence over their Indians, than they made it their principal Care to reſtrain them from every Act of Cruelty, generouſly employing that Authority to the Preſervation of the French, which, in their Hands, had been uſed to ſuch deſtructive Purpoſes towards the Subjects of the Britiſh Nation.

FREED from the Calamities which ſo lately ſurrounded us, we have now before us, the pleaſing Proſpect of enjoying, in full Security, our Religious and Civil Rights. With the deepeſt Senſe of the Divine Goodneſs, great muſt be the Duty we owe to the beſt of Kings, by whoſe paternal Care and Munificence ſuch eminent Advantages have been procured for his People; while we have every Motive that can inſpire us with Sentiments of Love and Gratitude to our Mother Country, whoſe Treaſure, and the Blood of whoſe Heroes, have been ſo liberally expended in this Conteſt. We can, indeed, reflect with Satisfaction, that our utmoſt Endeavours have been exerted, on all Occaſions, for the Advancement of the Common Cauſe: But great as our Efforts have been, compared to our Abilities, without the powerful Aids we have received, they muſt have proved ineffectual, even for our own Defence.

Gentlemen of the General Aſſembly,

AT preſent I have nothing in particular to recommend to you, but a Proviſion for the Support of His Majeſty's Government.

Gentlemen of the Council, and General Aſſembly,

I HAVE every Inducement that can excite a Lover of his Country, to ſtudy and promote its Proſperity; and it will give me the greateſt Pleaſure to concur with you in whatever may be thought neceſſary for this End, as far as is conſiſtent with the Powers devolved on me by this caſual Acceſſion to the Adminiſtration.

Fort-George, New-York, 22d October, 1760. CADWALLADER COLDEN.

On the 21ſt Inſtant, his Excellency Thomas Boone, Eſq; Governor of New-Jerſey, iſſued a Proclamation, ſetting forth, that whereas the Education of Youth is a Matter of great Conſequence, and ought not to be truſted but to Perſons of good Character, and loyal Principles, and profeſſed Proteſtants; therefore he requires all Magiſtrates to inform themſelves ſufficiently of the Character of the School-Maſters in that Province, to adminiſter the Oaths to them, and give them, under the Hands of two, a Certificate of Approbation, by which they may obtain a Licence; and forbidding all Perſons, after the 31ſt of December, to execute the Office of a Schoolmaſter, without ſuch a Licence firſt obtained.

Nov. 3. The Brig Audrey, Captain Lawrence, arrived here laſt Night from London, but laſt from Portſmouth in 8 Weeks: He ſailed in Company with His Majeſty's Ships the Stirling Caſtle and Dover (the latter bound here with Money) and ſeveral other Veſſels, ſome of which were bound for the Weſt-Indies, others for Carolina, Philadelphia, &c.

It is ſaid eight Tranſport Veſſels, having Two Thouſand Men on board, ſailed under Convoy of the above Veſſels.---The Audrey parted Company with the Fleet ten Days after they came out, in a Storm.

We hear from Louiſbourg, that the Works in the Front of that Place, were all blown up, and levelled, ſo that nothing but a Beach was to be ſeen; but that the Whole was not demoliſhed a Fortnight ago.

Extract of a Letter from Charles-Town, South-Carolina, October 4, 1760.

"Our Friends at Fort Prince-George are in deplorable Circumſtances, the Fort being blockaded Night and Day by the Cherokees, who declare they will have it at all Events. It is certain, by the laſt Accounts, they were within a few Days March of it with Part of the Artillery they found at Fort Loudoun. A Regiment is immediately to be raiſed, as Proviſion was made for that Purpoſe ſome Time ſince, and 7 Companies of Rangers are to be compleated forthwith to ſuccour Fort Prince-George, the Garriſon being greatly diſtreſſed for Proviſions."

On Tueſday laſt the Earl of Leiceſter Packet-Boat, Captain Morris (Weather not permitting before) ſailed for Falmouth, and on board of which went Home Paſſengers, Colonel Montgomery, and ſeveral other Gentlemen.

Troup, of London, bound to Hampton, in Virginia, from Louiſbourg; had ſuffered a little in his Rigging, otherwiſe all well, and ſpared him ſome Water. The ſame Day he alſo ſpoke with Captain Lawrence, from New-York, for Auguſtine, from whom likewiſe he had ſome Water and Candles. And on the 27th he met with Capt. John Williams, in a Sloop from Jamaica for New-York, who was extremely kind to him, and offered him any Aſſiſtance in his Power.

WHEREAS a certain JOHN WHITE, who lately came from North-Carolina to this Place, has, in a very unjuſt and fraudulent Manner, become indebted to the Subſcribers, with a large Number of oth- of the Merchants and Tradeſmen of the ſaid City, to the Value of near Four Thouſand Pounds; upon which Credit, he hath built a fine ſingle deck'd Brigantine, and taken up a large Quantity of Goods for her Lading, under Pretence of ſending her forthwith to North-Carolina; and, in order the more effectually and clandeſtinely to cover and carry on his wicked and fraudulent Intentions, he gave out to his Creditors, that he did not intend to leave the Place, but ſettle here; yet, after the Veſſel left the Port, he, unknown to his Creditors, and contrary to his Engagement, proceeded in a private Manner to New Caſtle; at which Place the ſaid White, and the Captain of the ſaid Brigantine, John Thornton, with their Wives, embarked and ſailed in her, to ſome Place, as is apprehended, where the ſaid White may think himſelf ſafeſt from his Creditors, with a Deſign entirely to cheat and defraud them of their juſt Debts. Now we the Subſcribers, in order for the apprehending of the ſaid John White, and for preventing the like Impoſitions by him on others, for the future, and for procuring, if poſſible, from him our juſt Demands, do hereby give public Notice of the Conduct of the ſaid John White, and deſire all and any of our Friends, or the Friends of Juſtice, in any Port or Place where the ſaid White may arrive with the ſaid Veſſel, to arreſt and apprehend him, together with the Veſſel, on our Accounts, and of ſuch their friendly and generous Tranſactions to remit to us forthwith an Account, that they may have the proper Credentials authentically tranſmitted to them, which they may depend ſhall be done with the utmoſt Expedition: And we do hereby engage to ſupport and indemnify ſuch Perſons, in the fulleſt and ampleſt Manner, for interpoſing in our Behalf againſt the ſaid White, and the ſaid Veſſel; and to make them full Compenſation, for the Trouble and Expences which they ſhall ſuſtain in this Behalf.

N.B. In caſe the ſaid Veſſel ſhould be arreſted, it muſt be done ſeverally in the Names of John Wharton, Builder of the ſaid Veſſel, John Malcolm, Sail-maker, William Spafford, Rope-maker and Ship-chandler, Luke Morris, James Wharton, and Enoch Story, in Company, Rope-makers and Ship-chandlers, and Daniel Offley, Blackſmith. And in caſe the ſaid White ſhould be arreſted, it may be done in any other of the Subſcribers Names ſeverally.

The ſaid John White is a ſlim young Man, near 27 Years of Age, about 5 Feet 6 or 7 Inches high, ſmall Roman Noſe, talks quick, one of his upper Teeth appears decayed, and is of a lively Behaviour.

The Veſſel is a ſingle deck'd Brigantine, called the Ranger, 55 Feet ſtraight by the Keel, and 22 Feet Beam, 11 Feet Hold, Quarter Deck 34 Feet long, with Bulk Head, has Ports for 16 Guns, a Man Head, with a Jockey Cap, ſhort Coat, a Piſtol in one Hand, and a Cutlaſs in the other, a graving Piece at the Larboard Bow, in the lower Wale, about two Feet long, with a white Bottom, and black Sides.

Charles-Town (in South Carolina) October 15.

BY the laſt Accounts from the Camp at Congarees the Men ſtill continued very ſickly. A conſiderable Number of the Sick are coming to Town, where the Barracks have been prepared for their Reception.

The Province of North-Carolina has raiſed four Companies, One Hundred Men each, under the Command of Col. Hugh Waddel, who are employed for the Protection of their Frontier againſt the Cherokees. The Head-Quarters are at Fort Dobbs. Twenty of our Rangers came upon an Indian Camp, killed one Indian, and wounded another, and retook a large Quantity of Beef which the Indians had juſt killed.

Several Traders are arrived at Auguſta from the Creek Nation, and have brought down a large Quantity of Skins, and other Effects. What belonged to the murdered Traders is now chiefly recovered. Affairs in that Country bear a promiſing Aſpect; all is Peace and Quietneſs at preſent; but perhaps the next Accounts may be diametrically oppoſite. The Wolf and Gun Merchant ſay they are coming down to ſee the Governors; the firſt of thoſe Headmen has always been our firm and unalterable Friend.

On Saturday laſt, agreeable to the Talk ſent to the Cherokee Indians, formerly mentioned in this Paper, the Priſoners taken in the Expedition under the Hon. Col. Montgomery, were ſent, under an Eſcort, for Congarees, and thence to proceed to Ninety-ſix to be exchanged.

The ſame Day Major Thomſon, of the Rangers, with near 300 Men of that Regiment, ſet out with a large Quantity of jerked Beef (26 Carcaſes) and about 3000 lb. of Flour, from Ninety-ſix, for Fort Prince-George.

October 18.

Copy of a Letter from Colonel Byrd, addreſſed to the Standing-Turkey, Ocunnahſtotah, and the reſt of the Head-Warriors of the Cherokee Nation.

"My good Brother, the Little-Carpenter, has delivered me Captain Stuart, and three others of my Countrymen; who have informed me of your treacherous Behaviour to the Garriſon of Fort-Loudoun, and have told me of the many Engliſh Priſoners now in your Nation, which I am determined to chaſtiſe you for, unleſs you immediately deliver them all up to me; for Virginians and Carolinians are the ſame People. As you know I always wiſhed your Nation well, and never told you a Lie in all my Talks with you, I will now tell you my Situation; and what you may expect from me, if you perſiſt in your own Obſtinacy to bring Deſtruction on yourſelves, your Women and Children. I am now encamped on the Waters of Kanawa, with a powerful Army of Virginians, and can have as many more Men as I pleaſe, and as many Indians as I want, from the Ohio and Sir William Johnſon, now we have drove the French out of Canada and their Forts to the Northward. I am building Forts all the Way, and propoſe ſoon to be in your Nation; when I will not leave one Indian alive, one Town ſtanding, or one Grain of Corn, in all your Country, if I do not find all the white People well, when I go there. I tell you this Truth, becauſe I am not afraid of you; and wiſh for nothing more than to fight with you, if you ſtill deſire War; for my Men have beat all the Indians to the Northward, and are not to be frightened by your Yells. But, as I once loved you like my Brothers, and ſtill wiſh to ſee you happy, hear what I have to ſay to you, and think on your own miſerable Situation. King GEORGE's Armies have drove the French from the Northern Parts of America, and the Indians there are now begging for Peace. We have nothing to do now, but to drive the French from the Southward: Then what will become of you? Who will ſupply you with Goods, to keep yourſelves and your Families warm? Who will let you have Ammunition to kill Deer; or Knives, or Salt, or any Neceſſaries of Life? Our People know the Way into your Nation: They are as numerous as the Fiſh in the Sea; and will go every Fall into your Towns, and kill you, if they find you; and if they cannot find you (becauſe you run away) they will deſtroy your Corn in your Granaries, and will build Forts in your hunting Grounds; and at laſt drive you into the South-Sea.-----Think of theſe Things, Cherokees, and think of all my ſtraight Talks; and believe what I now ſay; for 'tis for your own Good. Call in all your Warriors directly; come down, and talk with me, and bring me in your Priſoners; and you ſhall be ſafe, and go home when you pleaſe; and I will be your Friend and Brother again, and will procure you a good Peace.-------Tom will tell you how I uſed him; and the Little-Carpenter will be with you, as ſoon as he has refreſhed himſelf with me; they will all tell you what I ſay is true.-----If you have a Mind for a Peace, come in directly; and, depend upon it, I will not detain you, but let you go when you have a Mind: You ſhall meet with good Uſage, and not a Hair of your Heads ſhall be hurt, for I do not want to deſtroy your People. Send in a Runner before you, and the Path ſhall be clear. Be ſure to have a good Interpreter, that he may tell you all I ſay: I would ſend you Dick Smith, but I do not know how you would uſe him.

Given under my Hand, at the Camp on the Waters of Kanawa, September the 16th, 1760.

WILLIAM BYRD, commanding an Army of Virginians.

P. S. If you refuſe my Offer now, my Guns ſhall talk of War, and not of Peace."

Copy of a Letter from the Great Warrior, addreſſed, To the Commanding Officer at Fort Prince-George, &c.

Friend and Brother, Noucaſſih, Sept. 29, 1760.

I AND my People ſet off from Chotih to receive the Governor's Letter, but I received a Talk from Colonel Byrd: I ſhall ſtay this Day where I am, and then proceed on my Journey to Keowee; and perhaps I may come to the Fort, if I thought you would not ſhut me up. I am well pleaſed with the Governor's Letter, and Col. Byrd's, and I hope all Things will be made up. I love the Whites that are among us, and they ſhall be ſafe returned to their reſpective Homes ſoon. By the 2d of October I expect the Expreſs at Keowee, and by that Time I ſhall be there. I remain,

Your Friend and Brother,
OCUNNAHSTOTAH."

"P. S. We are coming unarmed: We come to meet in Peace, not for War."

Copy of another Letter from Judd's Friend, addreſſed as the foregoing.

Friend and Brother,

I AND all the Warriors remember the Governor's Letter, and I hope all Things will be made ſtrait ſoon. I thought to have gone to Town, but don't know how I may be received. I hope the Governor will ſend ſome of his Warriors nigher hand to talk. I have been thro' all the Towns, and gave them my Talk of Peace, which they all approve of, and are deſirous of a Peace. What is it like, to war with the Engliſh? We can find none other to ſupply us with what we want, but them only. I remain,

Your Friend and Brother,
JUDD'S FRIEND, alias OTASSITIH."

Copy of a Letter from the Great Warrior, addreſſed to Lieut. Miln, dated, Camp near Cheewih, Oct. 1, 1760.

Friend and Brother,

YOU gave me an Invitation to your Garriſon, but I muſt defer the Viſit till To-morrow. All my Brother-Towns, as I came along, are well agreed, and inclinable for a Peace: I ſhall now take the Hatchet out of their Hands, and bury it: They now think of nothing but what is good. The Seed, of Settiquoh, is at Eſtatowih; we are now going to have a Talk, and to take and bury the Hatchet that he has; it is the laſt that is out. When I have accompliſhed my Meſſage at Eſtatowih with the Seed, you may expect to ſee me at your Fort. I do not chuſe to have a Talk in the Fort, by reaſon they [my People] will not all have Admittance; therefore we will have it out of the Fort, as there are a great many of us, that all may hear. We have the Governor's Pipe with us, which we ſhall ſmoak in firſt, in Remembrance of him, &c. I remain, Your Friend and Brother,

"P. S. The Turkey ſays, his Brother-Town of Settiquoh makes you a Preſent of this Tobacco [ſome that came with the Letter] to ſmoak it, in Token of Friendſhip, &c. The Raven brings the Pipe."

Wedneſday laſt, ſoon after the Expreſs from Ninety-Six came in, another arrived from Col. Byrd's Camp (which was ſtill at Sawyer's on Reed Creek, near the Great Kanawa River) with Diſpatches, dated the 21ſt of September; and brought the following Advices, "That Attakulla-Kulla (or the Little-Carpenter) was juſt ſetting out on an Embaſſy to the Cherokee Nation, with Offers of Peace from Col. Byrd, upon theſe Terms, viz.

I. That they ſhall deliver up Fort Loudoun (with all the Cannon, Stores, &c. thereto belonging) to the Virginia Troops, to be garriſoned by them.

II. That they ſhall likewiſe forthwith deliver up all the white Priſoners in their Nation, unhurt.

III. That the Virginians ſhall be at Liberty to erect and garriſon other Forts in the Nation, wherever they may think proper.

IV. That they ſhall hold no Correſpondence with the French, nor ſuffer any to come among them, upon any Pretence whatever.

V. That they ſhall deliver up ſuch Perſons as ſhall be required of them, to be put to Death in the Virginia Camp.

VI. That Attakulla-Kulla ſhall be declared and acknowledged Emperor and Head of the Whole Cherokee Nation.

Theſe, we hear, are the Terms, upon which Col. Byrd propoſes to the Cherokees, "That all Hoſtilities againſt them ſhall ceaſe; their Trade ſhall be fully reſtored; and ſuch of their People as are Priſoners amongſt the Engliſh ſhall be delivered up." The Little-Carpenter had engaged to return, with the Nation's Anſwer to theſe Terms, by the 20th Inſtant at fartheſt, to the Virginia Camp, where Capt. Stuart was, and would remain till then: He flattered himſelf, that he could prevail on the Heads of the Nation to agree to them: and if he ſucceeds, is to be properly ſupported as Emperor of the Cherokees, &c.

Letters from Auguſta, of the 5th Inſt. acquaint us, that Things again wear a good Aſpect in the Creek Nation; that almoſt all the Leather which the murdered Traders Stores were robbed of was reſtored; and that ten Chactahs were arrived there with two French Scalps, taken in Sight of Tompeak-bay Fort, by theſe Indians with ſome Creeks, headed by Duvall's-Landlord, in Revenge for the Death of the Pack-horſeman who was killed near the ſame Place ſome Time ago, at the Inſtigation of the French: The Fort fired upon them, but without Effect.

It was Capt. Dorgan, who went out on a Scout the 22d ult. with a Party of Rangers, that on the 26th fell in with the Indian Camp mentioned in the Letter from Fort Prince George. There were 3 Indians in the Camp (which was on Reedy River) one of whom (an old Man) they killed and ſcalped, and ſent his Scalp to Major Thomſon; the two others ran into a Cane Swamp. In the Camp they found two Guns, plenty of Powder and Ball, a great deal of Plunder, and two large Bullocks juſt killed, which the Indians were going to jerk.

Letters of the 3d Inſtant, from Savannah, tell us, that every Thing was quiet in that Quarter at that Time; That Accounts from the Indian Country were as uſual; The Creeks promiſed fair, and remained peaceable: And that, upon the Arrival here of the long-expected Preſents from England, which came over with Lieutenant-Governor Wright, Governor Ellis had ſent for the Headmen to come down.

The Schooner Nancy, Capt. Dyer, from Philadelphia, met with a hard Gale of Wind off Cape-Hatteras, on Sunday the 5th Inſt. which obliged him to throw his Boat and every Thing upon Deck overboard, and to cut away his Main-maſt.

October 22. By Letters from Fort Prince George, dated the 4th Inſtant, and brought to Ninety-ſix, by a Perſon ſent for that Purpoſe, we have the following Advices, viz.

"The Indian ſent off from the Virginia Camp to alarm, with Accounts of Col. Byrd's Approach, was arrived, and brought a very ſpirited Talk from the Colonel.---The Indians, it is ſaid, were rebuilding the lower Towns deſtroyed by Col. Montgomery, and pretended to be deſirous of Peace, of which their offering again to ſettle in thoſe Towns ſeems no ſlight Proof. They had likewiſe brought Corn, ſome Beef, Veniſon, and other Proviſions into the Fort."

The Commanding Officer writes: "On the 25th of September I had four Chickeſaws, and a white Man, named Cuthbert, with me; they brought no material News. I could not ſhew them that Regard I deſired, becauſe Old Cæſar came in the ſame Day with two of the Fort Loudoun Garriſon (Provincials) I was obliged therefore to ſend off the Chickeſaws in the Night, for fear of ſomething fatal. About the Middle of September, one John Stephens, of Captain Goldſmith's Company, was brought into the Fort by Tuſkeegatahee, an Indian, who told me, that Ocunnahſtotah had deſired him to enquire what Goods I had in Store, for he deſigned to be down himſelf to inſpect into them. Stephens paid Sixty Pounds for his Ranſom. He ſaid the Indians were determined to have this Fort. The Chief of the Overhill Towns are now here, waiting the Arrival of MacNamar with the Governor's Anſwer; they come often to the Fort, bringing one or more of the Captives with them, to ſee what they can get for their Ranſom; they have only brought down about ſeven in all. 'Tis a ſhocking

By the Captains Rogers and Falconer, from London, we have the following Advices.

H A G U E, Auguſt 15.

WE are informed, by Letters from Magdebourg, that Prince Henry of Pruſſia arrived at Glogau, with his Army, on the 1ſt Inſt. and that his Royal Highneſs having left before that Place Part of his Forces, was marched with the other to Breſlau, in order to prevent the Junction of any Auſtrian Troops with the Ruſſian Army. The ſame Letters add, that Gen. Laudohn had appeared before that Town the 30th paſt, with a Corps of about 15,000 Men; and that as the Pruſſian Commandant, Major Gen. Taventzien, had refuſed, upon ſeveral Summons's, to ſurrender, the Auſtrians began, on the 1ſt Inſt. to throw Bombs into the Town, which had reduced the King of Pruſſia's Palace into Aſhes, as well as the fineſt Streets in the City; but that as Gen. Laudohn had no heavy Artillery with him, and began to be in want of Ammunition of all Kinds, he was obliged to retire on the 4th in the Morning, directing his March towards Liſſa and Schweidnitz. The King of Pruſſia was arrived the 6th Inſt. at Bautzen; Marſhal Daun was at Weiſſenberg, at the Diſtance of one German Mile from his Pruſſian Majeſty.

Auguſt 19. After having received the News of the King of Pruſſia's Arrival at Bautzen, on the 6th Inſt. and of Marſhal Daun's at Weiſſenberg, in order to intercept him in his Paſſage into Sileſia, we have juſt had the unexpected Account, that his Pruſſian Majeſty reached Lignitz, in Sileſia, on the 11th Inſt. having executed his March to that Place, without any Loſs in Men or Baggage, and beat up ſeveral Auſtrian Detachments in his Way thither.

Prince Henry of Pruſſia, according to the laſt Accounts, had paſſed through the Town of Breſlau, croſſed the Oder, marched forward, and reached Drachenberg, on the Frontiers of Poland.

Altena, Aug. 12. The Duke of Wirtemberg, who is marching with his Troops towards Smalkalden, as ſoon as he has joined the 6000 Auſtrians, under the Command of Gen. Luſinſky, is to go into the Dutchy of Magdebourg, and by ſecuring both Sides of the Elbe, cut off the Communication of the Pruſſians with that City.

Caſſel, Aug. 2. The French found 18 Braſs and 13 Iron Cannon in the new Entrenchments of the New Town of Caſſel, and 50 Officers, with 1000 ſick Men, in the City.

Bruſſels, Aug. 18. We learn from Marſhal Broglio's Head-quarters, that on the 11th Inſt. the Marſhal received Advice, that the Garriſon of Ziegenhaim, conſiſting of 750 Men, had ſurrendered Priſoners of War. There were found in the Place 14 Braſs and two Iron Pieces of Cannon.

Roſtock, Auguſt 10. The Swediſh Army is on its March to enter Brandenburgh, where it may do juſt what it pleaſes, for there are no Troops there to oppoſe it. It croſſed the Peene Yeſterday. It is imagined that it will turn to the Right, and lay Siege to Magdebourg.

Hamburgh, Auguſt 15. By the Poſition which the King of Pruſſia hath taken in the Heart of Sileſia, he not only covers Breſlau, but keeps open a Communication with the Prince his Brother.

Marſhal Daun, who in a Manner follows the King of Pruſſia Step by Step, carefully avoids coming to an Action, and ſeems deſirous to leave that Taſk, as he did laſt Year, to the Ruſſians; but the Czarina's Forces, finding it difficult to effect their Junction with the Auſtrians, and unwilling to bring the whole Force of Pruſſia upon their Heads, have, it is aſſured, prudently fallen back to the Frontiers of Poland.

Hamburgh, Auguſt 19. After the French and Saxons had been diſlodged from Nordheim, the Garriſon they had placed in Gottingen retired on the 11th, in the utmoſt Hurry and Diſorder; ſince which the Hanoverian Hunters, under the Command of Captain Bulow, have taken Poſſeſſion of that Place.

Broglio's Head Quarters at Oberluſtingen, Aug. 14. This Day the Officers received Orders to ſupply themſelves with Proviſions for four Days; and three Days Allowance of Bread has been diſtributed to the common Men, though this was not to have been done till the 16th. Hence we judge that the Marſhal has ſome important Deſign in View, which Time will ſoon diſcover.

Franckfort, Auguſt 16. It is preſumed, that as the French Army cannot attack the Allies with Advantage in their Camp at Warbourg, Marſhal Broglio will make a Motion on his Right, in order to penetrate into the Electorate of Hanover.

Hague, Auguſt 21. The Number of ſick and wounded French Officers and Soldiers carried to Frankfort, is ſo great, that they have been obliged to place them in the Churches, and other public Buildings.

On the 6th Inſt. Part of the Troops under General Luſinſky entered Wanfried, and ſeized the Magazines in that Place, belonging to the Allies. Ziegenhaim ſurrendered for Want of Gunpowder. The Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick has been indiſpoſed, and twice blooded; but was ſo well recovered on the 13th, that he dined at the Head Quarters. M. Imhoff, Lieutenant General of the Troops of Brunſwick, has reſigned his Commiſſion.

Hamburgh, Aug. 19. Baron van Hecht, his Pruſſian Majeſty's Privy Councellor reſiding here as Miniſter to the Circle of Lower Saxony, this Day, about 3 o'Clock in the Afternoon, received the important News, That the King his Maſter, on the 15th of this Month, had obtained a compleat Victory over the Army of General Laudohn, between Lignitz and Parchwits; that about 7000 of the Auſtrians were left on the Field of Battle, and above 4000 made Priſoners; among which are ſeveral Officers of Diſtinction. Among other Fruits of this Victory, 90 Pieces of Cannon are taken, which had been made Uſe of at the Siege of Breſlau. When the Expreſs ſet off, the Pruſſians were purſuing the Enemy. Marſhal Daun was not far off with the main Army, but had not been able to ſuccour General Laudohn.

Liſbon, July 29. Yeſterday, at Three o'Clock in the Morning, the Infants Don Antonio and Don Gaſpar, the King's natural Brothers, were taken away from the Palace, and conducted under a ſtrong Guard to Barlenga, a ſmall Iſland upon the Coaſt of Eſtramadura. It is aſſured, that the Infant Don Joſeph is likewiſe put under Arreſt. There is a general Combuſtion throughout this Kingdom, and our Monarch, with all his Prudence, will have much to do to extinguiſh it.

P. S. 'Tis this Moment reported, that there has been a Sea Engagement, upon the Coaſt of Lagos, in the Kingdom of Algarva, between the French Squadron of M. de Rochemore and the Engliſh under Admiral Saunders; but no Particulars are mentioned.

From the Head Quarters of the Allied Army, at Warbourg, Auguſt 14. General Luckner, who continues to make Incurſions in the Diſtrict of Gottingen, was reinforced a few Days ago by 10 Battalions and 12 Squadrons. It is ſaid, that he will likewiſe be joined by the Troops lately arrived from England. The Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick will be charged with the Command of the whole Corps, as ſoon as he is quite recovered from an Indiſpoſition.

Hague, Auguſt 22. The Inſult lately committed by the Engliſh at Delfzul was this: An Engliſh Sloop of War came into the Baſon of that Place, and ſearched a Veſſel belonging to the Town; which was a Violation of the Republick's Territory. The Governor of that Place hath ſince ſent Notice to the States-General, that it was almoſt blocked up by Engliſh Veſſels, who even exerciſed a Kind of Sovereignty there, by ſuffering no Veſſels but ſuch as they thought proper, to come in; which was a great Detriment to the Trade and Navigation of that Place. Whereupon the States-General have ſent over Inſtructions to Mr. Hopp, their Envoy at London, to make ſerious Remonſtrances on this Subject to the Britiſh Miniſtry.

Cologn, Aug. 19. By Advices from London of the 8th Inſt. we learn, that Baron Kniphauſen, the Pruſſian Miniſter, having, for ſome Time, warmly ſolicited that a Reinforcement of 10 or 12000 Men, draughted from the Allied Army, might be ſent to the King his Maſter, and repreſented that theſe Succours would enable his Majeſty to make Head againſt his Enemies; he has been promiſed not 10 or 12, but 20 or 25000, if Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwick ſhould have the good Fortune to beat Marſhal Broglio. The Pruſſian Envoy was, at the ſame Time, told, that the King his Maſter might reſt aſſured, that England would ſecond him with all her Strength and Might.

Baron Kniphauſen having communicated theſe Declarations to his Majeſty, he has, within theſe few Days, repreſented to the Miniſtry, That the Fate of a Battle was uncertain, and the King's Enemies, particularly the Empreſs Queen, ſeemed to have ſworn his Ruin; that his Majeſty flattered himſelf, that with a Reinforcement of only 12,000 Men, he ſhould be able to defeat their Enterpriſes; that as the Allied Army could not, at preſent, ſpare ſuch a Body, it depended only on his Britannick Majeſty to grant him another Corps of 12,000 Engliſh; in Conſideration of which, the King of Pruſſia would conſent that a Million of German Florins ſhould be deducted from his Subſidy; that this might be the eaſier done, as none of the three Kingdoms ſeemed to be threatened this Year with a French Invaſion; and that if his Britannick Majeſty ſhould judge it more proper, this freſh Body of Engliſh might join the Allied Army, and the like Number of Germans be ſent from it to the Pruſſian Camp, on the aforeſaid Conditions.

Hanover, Aug. 15. Hamelen and Nienbourg are ſo well provided with Artillery, and all other Neceſſaries for a vigorous Defence, that they have nothing to fear. The Enemy ſeem rather to have Deſigns againſt Lipſtadt and Munſter, and wait only for the Arrival of the Wurtembergers to make a Diverſion on our Borders. Mean while, the large Body of Cavalry, which were quartered near Zell, paſſed, on the 12th, under our Walls, going to extend themſelves on the Frontiers of the Biſhopric of Hildeſheim; and this Evening a Column of the Engliſh Troops, lately landed, is expected at Linden, in their Way to the Army. The Garriſon of Dillenbourg, which has been exchanged, has already joined the main Army.

Some private Letters from Pomerania ſay, that a Fleet of 22 Sail of Swediſh Men of War, &c. appeared off Colberg, the 6th Inſtant, and after cruizing four Days near that Port, they ſailed to the Weſtward.

The French Camp, under the Duke de Broglio, have no other Water but what they fetch from the River Dimel, the Communication with which might be very eaſily cut off, by the advanced Poſts of the Allies; but Prince Ferdinand has moſt generouſly allowed them to come for Water, provided they come without their Arms and Accoutrements.

Letters from the Allied Army, of the 14th Inſtant, mention, that the Hereditary Prince of Brunſwick was entirely recovered from his late Illneſs, to the great Joy of the whole Army.

L O N D O N,

Auguſt 29. By a private Letter from Paris, we learn, that the Anſwer made by the Parliament of Normandy to the King's Speech to their Deputies (wherein his Majeſty told them, "He was their Maſter, and ought to puniſh their Preſumption in daring to diſobey his Order to regiſter his Money Edicts,") was as follows;

"SIRE, You are our Maſter; we know it, and we have never given you any Reaſon to think that we had forgot it. Your Parliament is the ſole Support of your Throne, by adminiſtring Juſtice, which is its immoveable Foundation. If the Principles they have laid before your Majeſty merit Puniſhment, the Kings your Predeceſſors, who eſtabliſhed them, are alone to be blamed; and they cannot be ſet aſide by us. Bound by the Sacredneſs of our Oath, to adhere to thoſe Principles which conſtitute the Happineſs of your People, we cannot, we ought not to regiſter your late Orders, which, contrary to your Majeſty's Intention, would cauſe the Ruin of a Million of your moſt faithful Subjects. You can take away our Lives, Sire, but you cannot compel us to commit an Act of Injuſtice, by violating that Part of our Duty which we hold moſt ſacred."

Auguſt 30. Letters from Paris, by Way of Holland, of the 16th Inſt. ſay, that at Aux in Gaſcony, on the 12th ult. they had a terrible Storm, attended with Hail-ſtones as large as Turky Eggs, and Pieces of Ice of great Weight; which beat in ſome Roofs of Houſes and other Buildings; and hath deſtroyed entirely the Fruits of the Earth belonging to above 400 Villages in that Province; ſeveral People, and a great many Cattle, were killed.

Extract of a Letter from Warbourg, Aug. 20.

"The Armies have made no Motion for ſeveral Days paſt, both remaining perfectly quiet in their reſpective Camps, with only the Dymel between them; but there have been frequently Skirmiſhes between our flying Parties and thoſe of the Enemy, in which Gen. Luckner and Col. Donop have been very ſucceſsful, having killed, and taken Priſoners, above One Thouſand of the Enemy within this Fortnight paſt, with very little Loſs on their Side."

The French Ambaſſador at the Hague has aſked Permiſſion of the States General to carry Proviſions and Forrage, purchaſed about Nimeguen, through their Territories to the French Camp.

Captain Mackenzie, of his Majeſty's Bomb-ketch Infernal, has brought into Portſmouth, the Reſolution, Hogg, belonging to Ipſwich, from Virginia, bound to London, with upwards of 600 Hogſheads of Tobacco, which he retook from a French Privateer going into Cherburgh. The Reſolution has received much Damage in her Sails and Rigging. The ſaid Privateer had taken the Ruſſel, Crawford, and the Princeſs of Gambia, Foſter, both from Virginia; the former for London, and the latter for Cowes, and it is feared are both carried in.

The very hazardous Endeavours lately made by the French, in order, firſt, to recover Quebec, and, ſecondly, to ſupport themſelves in their preſent poor Footing in Canada, plainly ſhew how very important they conſider thoſe Poſſeſſions to be to them.

This Importance muſt ariſe from the real intrinſic Value of thoſe Colonies, or from the great Views that they are to proſecute by the keeping of them.

If the former is the Caſe, it decides the Diſputes of the comparative Value of that Country with Guadaloupe. If the latter be the Object, it is a demonſtrative Proof, that no Peace can be laſting which leaves the French in Poſſeſſion of any Part of North-America.

The whole Empire of that Continent muſt therefore now reſt with us, or the French will never give over their Purſuits for acquiring it; and we, and perhaps all Europe, will be continually embroiled by their Endeavours thereat. So that it is now become abſolutely neceſſary for the Safety of theſe Kingdoms, and for the Peace of the whole World, that ſuch a Cauſe of Contention be for ever removed.

The Empire of the Ocean is the great Object contended for, which the Continent of North-America infallibly gives to its Poſſeſſor. Can the Security of ſuch an Advantage be balanced by any other Conſideration? Or ſhould it be ever again hazarded, when once entirely in our Poſſeſſion?

Let NORTH-AMERICA, then, be the WORD and the WISH of ALL BRITONS; and let us think nothing too great for the Price of its compleat Purchaſe, ſince on the making of it, our POWER, SECURITY and PEACE muſt depend.

"That a Meſſenger was juſt arrived from Prince Ferdi-
" nand, giving a certain Account, that Marſhal Broglio,
" with his whole Army (not being able to ſubſiſt any longer
" where he was, nor to carry his Point, of penetrating
" into Hanover) had retreated; and that Prince Ferdi-
" nand had ſent the Inniſkilling and Scotch Grey Dra-
" goons, all the Light Cavalry, and Grenadiers of the " whole Army, to harraſs his Rear, which it was expect-
" ed would bring on a general Engagement.-------By this
" the French have loſt their Point for this Campaign.

" over Laudohn.

"Three Dutch Mails this Evening, but no News-Pa-

" Greys have cut off the Parties the French left to cover
" their Retreat, and all the reſt, as before, are harraſſing
" their Rear, which, it is thought, will be attended with
" more Loſs to the French than a general Action, and with
" little or none to the Allies."

From Pittſburgh we learn, that on the 16th ult. Major Rogers, and Captain Brehem, an Engineer, arrived there, in 33 Days from Montreal, with Diſpatches for General

MONCKTON; and that on the 18th, in the Morning, they returned for Presque-Isle, with a Detachment of the Royal American Regiment, commanded by Captain Donald Campbell, who are to join a Body of Rogers's Rangers on Lake Erie, and proceed to take Possession of the French Forts at Detroit and Michillimachinac; they, with all their Dependencies, being particularly mentioned in the Capitulation of Canada.

He met with no Disturbance from the Indians, of whom he saw several Parties, who scampered off as soon as they observed the Number of his Detachment.---The Letters from Mr. Miln, Commanding Officer at Fort Prince-George, are dated the* 15th, and confirm the former Accounts of the Alteration in the Behaviour of the Indians, and the distressed State they were in, from so large a Proportion of their Towns, Corn and other Provisions, Cloathing, &c. being destroyed by the Detachment of His Majesty's Troops last Summer. Fort Prince-George had got a large Supply of Fire-wood while Major Thomson was there; and Mr. Miln says, He is determined, in no Event, to give up the Fort, but will rather perish in it, with those that will stick by him, than put any Faith in the Promises of the Savages, having the Fate of the unfortunate Garrison of Fort Loudoun so recent in Memory.

The following Intelligence we have from the Virginia Camp, on the Waters of Kanawa, dated October 7, viz. That they had met with many Difficulties since Colonel Montgomery's Retreat, which rendered it impossible for them to oppose the whole Body of Cherokees, with so small a Force; but that Humanity obliged them to remain on their Hunting Ground, to endeavour to recover the Prisoners among them, amounting to upwards of 400: That through Colonel Byrd's former Acquaintance with these Indians, our People had so far gained the Confidence of some of their Head Warriors, that they ventured to come to their Camp, to treat of a Peace, and had been dismissed with Presents: That they had agreed to deliver up, on the 21st ult. all our People, and the chief Murderers, provided they withdrew their Army immediately after, returned the Cherokees taken by Colonel Montgomery, and procured them the King's Pardon for their Rebellion: And that they were likewise to deliver up Fort-Loudoun in the same Condition they got it.-----Whether they intended to be sincere or not, Time only would discover; but it was thought they were certainly coming down.

Sight to see our Fellow Chriſtians Slaves to Heathen Barbarians, obliged to be at their Beck and Call, looking every Moment when they ſhall have the Hatchet ſtruck into their Heads.

"It is no little Difficulty, in the Condition this Garriſon now is, to keep the Men to their Duty, we can hold out a Month, during which Time ſurely, we ſhall be relieved.---It is not long ſince the Creeks ſent a War Hatchet to the Cherokees, deſiring them to continue the War, and they would aſſiſt them. The Man-killer of Nookaſe I believe is ſtill our Friend, and has differed with his People on that Account; he lives with me in the Fort.---While I have a Day's Proviſion, I am determined not to quit my Ground; if I get a Supply, it is not all the Indians on the Continent that ſhall make me give up what we have ſo long held.------ A. MILN."

Auguſta, 9th October, 1760. "A few Days ago arrived ten Chactaws, with the Scalp of one Chactaw of the French Party, as Satisfaction for a Pack-horſeman lately killed by them. Duvall's Landlord, with 40 of his Nation (Creeks) and one Chactaw, went very near the Fort in the Chactaw Country, killed a Fellow and a Wench of the French Party, and fired at the Fort till the French obliged them to retire by their Cannon. Duvall's Landlord declares, that while he can get a Man to follow him, he will continue a War againſt the Chactaws in the French Intereſt: He propoſed being down before now, if nothing more happened, and as he is not come, we conclude the Chactaws followed the Party for Satisfaction.---The Creeks do not yet incline to give Satisfaction for the Murders committed by them. An Expreſs is gone from Governor Ellis to Mr. Joſeph Wright, to get the Headmen of the Creeks down to Savannah. Mr. William Thomſon is gone to Savannah with fifteen Chactaws, and is thence to proceed to Charles-Town."

Since our laſt about 180 of the Royal Scots are come down ſick from the Camp at Congarees, and are lodged in the Barracks.

The Diſtance from the Virginia Camp to the Country of the Cherokee Indians is ſaid to be only five Days ride. The Indian diſpatched by Col. Byrd, with the News of his Approach, arrived in four Days and a Half at Fort Loudoun.

On Sunday Evening one Horton, belonging to the independent Companies, and who, with ſix others, eſcaped out of the Garriſon of Fort Loudoun before the Capitulation, arrived in Town, after many Hardſhips.

This Day Samuel Terron, who has been a conſiderable Time among the Cherokees, came to Town with Diſpatches to the Governor from Mr. Miln, and an Anſwer from Ocunnahſtotah to the Talk ſent up by Macnamar, the Wolf and the Corn-Taſſel.

Fort Prince George, Oct. 10th. "The Indians ſeem very deſirous of a Peace, and are gone up to bring the Priſoners down to carry to Ninety-Six, as they inform me, to exchange, agreeable to the Governor's Anſwer to their Talks by Macnamar. There are ſome white Savages amongſt them, greater Villains than the Indians themſelves, who let no Opportunity ſlip of informing them of every Thing they either ſee or hear, and how Affairs go on in the Settlements."------

Ocunnahſtotah's Talk or Letter is dated at Sugar-town 10th Inſt. and addreſſed to his Honour.---He ſays,---"I received your Letter, dated 28th ult. and I think it is very good. As to the Goods that were brought up to Keowee, which I mentioned in my laſt, I find there is none there.---As for our People that are amongſt you, I love them a great deal, as I do yours alſo.---As for coming and bringing the Priſoners to Ninety-Six, I cannot juſt now, by Reaſon I am obliged to go and meet that dreadful Warrior Col. Byrd, who is encamped within 5 Days March of Chotih, to anſwer his Letter. I did not care to go to the Fort; I ſent the beloved Pipe to the Warrior to ſmoke in, and he gave me what little Favours I deſired, and I thanked them for it, and I wiſh them well.---We are a little dubious of what was acted laſt by your Warriors, as you mentioned nothing of it in your Letter, and muſt defer it a little longer before I can venture that Length.---You may rely on what I now ſay; we are now done, and I deſire nothing but a Peace.---What Priſoners came down with us went backwards and forwards to the Fort, and at laſt ſtaid there, and I think well of it. I remain, &c.

OCUNNAHSTOTAH ⊖.

Mr. Terron met Major Thomſon, with his Rangers, on Sunday, the 12th Inſtant, near Long Canes, and expects they got to Fort Prince-George Yeſterday Se'nnight.

Added to the above, the following are the moſt authentic and material Advices now received from the Cherokee Country.

"It was Round O's Brother who ſeized and carried off Captain Stuart from the Field of Blood, where ſo many of our Countrymen and Friends were treacherouſly butchered by the perfidious Savages, and who delivered him to Attakullakulla, then at Fort-Loudoun.---Judd's Friend exerted himſelf much that Day in our Favour, and prevented the Maſſacre from being almoſt general: He went round the Field, ordering and calling to the Indians to deſiſt, and by the Repreſentations he made to them, ſtopt the further Progreſs and Effects of their barbarous and brutal Rage. He declares it as his Opinion and Reſolution, that if they can now obtain a Peace, "there never "ſhall be more War as long as he and the Old Warriors "live."----On the 26th of laſt Month the Britiſh Colours were diſplayed all Day and Night at Nookaſe, where there was a Meeting of near 2000 Cherokees, about 1400 of whom were Men, and a Talk was delivered by Ocunnahſtotah and Judd's Friend for a Peace with their Brothers the white Men; ["The Indians always by white Men "mean Britons, in Diſtinction from other Europeans, "whom they call by their common and uſual Names, as "French, Spaniards, &c.] which Talk was repeated by the ſame Headmen, and agreed to by all preſent, 9th inſt. at Sugar-Town. Orders were thereupon given, that no white Men [Britons] coming into the Nation, ſhould be interrupted, but be allowed freely to paſs and repaſs. This great Alteration in the Behaviour of the Indians, is by Mr. Terron, and others well acquainted with them, attributed entirely to the Talks ſent to them by our Governor and Colonel Byrd.---The whole Crop this Year in all the Cherokee Towns, notwithſtanding the terrifying Accounts eagerly and ſedulouſly propagated, of the great Quantity of Corn that would be made in the deſtroyed and deſolate Lower Settlements, is not ſufficient to ſupply them three Months. Many of that Nation, among whom are nearly all the People of the Middle Settlements and Lower Towns, who were the moſt ſeverely chaſtiſed and ſcourged by his Majeſty's Troops, commanded by the Hon. Col. Montgomery, are now almoſt naked, and in Want of every Neceſſary. There is, therefore, on the whole, little Reaſon to doubt of the Sincerity of their Requeſts for Peace."

His Serene Highneſs Prince FERDINAND'S ORDERS.

Warbourg Camp, Friday, Auguſt 1, 1760.

His Serene Highneſs again renews his Compliments of Thanks, that he gave in general Terms Yeſterday, to the General Officers, Regiments and Corps, who were then engaged, and who, by their Valour and excellent Conduct, gained ſo compleat a Victory over the Enemy; and orders his Thanks to be publickly given to Lord Granby, under whoſe Orders all the Britiſh Cavalry performed Prodigies of Valour, which they could not fail of doing, having his Lordſhip at their Head; and the other General Officers of the Britiſh Cavalry, who, by their Examples, ſhewed the Troops they led to the Charge, how much they acted with an aſtoniſhing Courage, and a Preſence of Mind not to be equalled. His Serene Highneſs is much obliged to them, and gives infinite Thanks as well to them, as to all the Officers in general, and in particular to the whole Britiſh Cavalry, and principally to Lieutenant-Colonel Johnſon, of Conway's Regiment; the Family of Lord Granby, in particular Capt. Vaughan, are hereby deſired to receive the ſame Compliment of Thanks, as they conſtantly attended Lord Granby in the different Attacks of the Cavalry, and executed his Lordſhip's Orders in the moſt punctual Manner.

The Corps of brave Grenadiers, who ſo much contributed to the glorious Succeſs of the Day, receive by this the juſteſt Praiſe due to them. His Serene Highneſs cannot enough acknowledge how much Eſteem and Regard he has for them: He orders his beſt Thanks to Lieutenant-Colonel Beckwith, and Major Maxwell, as alſo to the three Captains of the Britiſh Artillery, Philips, M'Baine and Stevens, who ſo well managed their Artillery. All the Regiments under the Command of his Serene Highneſs the Hereditary Prince, and Lieutenant General Spercken, from the Generals down to the private Men, are particularly thanked by His Serene Highneſs, for the good Conduct and Courage with which they fought Yeſterday.

Major General Bredenbeck, at the Head of Cope's Regiment, who ſignalized himſelf ſo much, is eſpecially thanked, as is Colonel Hund, of the Heſſian Artillery, by whoſe Care his Artillery was ſo well managed.

Major Bulow, who with the Britiſh Legion manœuvred the whole Day in the Face of the Enemy, and who did them infinite Damage, His Serene Highneſs returns him many Thanks, and aſſures him that he ſhall, on all Occaſions, retain a proper Senſe thereof. In fine, His Serene Highneſs gives many Thanks to thoſe who accompanied his Perſon, as well as to thoſe of his Suit, particularly to the brave Captain Winſenrood, who is very much wounded; Captain Carpenter, who greatly contributed to the taking of ſeveral of the Enemy's Cannon; Count Daunaw, who was inſtrumental in making Priſoners a great Number of Fiſcher's Corps; Captain Sloper, Major of Brigade Hordinburg; and Captain Mallortie, who at all Times executed with Alacrity and Exactneſs the Orders they received from him.

His Serene Highneſs deſires that, on the firſt Occaſion, the Army will return Thanks to the Almighty for the Succeſs of Yeſterday, and flatters himſelf that by his Aſſiſtance, and the Bravery ſhewed Yeſterday, we ſhall in the End overcome every Obſtacle that offers.

Warbourg Camp, Saturday Auguſt 2, 1760.

His Serene Highneſs orders that a particular Complement be made to Lieutenant Colonel Sloper, for his Behaviour and Bravery in the Affair of the 31ſt of July; he likewiſe deſires his Thanks to be given to Lieutenant-Colonel Clinton, acting as Aid de Camp to His Serene Highneſs the Hereditary Prince.

LONDON,

Auguſt 26. The 9th Inſt. the Miniſter of Mentz at Ratiſbon laid an Imperial Decree before the Dyet, concerning the 'Violences and Hoſtilities that have been committed, 'by the King of Great-Britain, as Elector of Hanover, 'and by the People in Alliance with him, in the Countries 'and States belonging to the Elector of Cologn.' In this Decree the Emperor deſires the Germanick Body to procure an Indemnification for his Electoral Highneſs: But it is apprehended they will tell his Imperial Majeſty, it is ridiculous to think of getting Satisfaction from the Houſe of Hanover, before the Court of Vienna can bring the King of Pruſſia to its own Terms.

Letters from Francfort on the Oder, dated the 11th Inſt. adviſe, that ſome Ruſſian Troops, which had encamped a few Days before in the Eaſtern Pomerania, were gone back into Poland, after taking with them whatever they could lay their Hands on, ſuch as Money, Cattle, and even Men. It was expected their Place would ſoon be ſupplied by a more numerous Body, whoſe firſt Exploit ſhould be the Siege of Colberg, if no Diſaſter happened to the Auſtrians, or the Ruſſian Grand Army, on the Side of Sileſia.

They write from Thuringia, that Orders had been iſſued there for getting in the Harveſt before the 15th of this Month, to the End that the Duke of Wirtemberg's Troops may take Poſt in the Country.

Letters from Vienna, of the 9th Inſt. ſay, that the Ruſſians would ſoon be at the Place of their Deſtination; that the Court did indeed reckon upon their arriving ſooner, but it is given out that the Badneſs of the Roads is the Cauſe of this Delay.

Auguſt 30. We hear that Letters over Land arrived on Thurſday at the Eaſt-India-houſe, with an Account that Admiral Pocock, was preparing to ſail for Pondicherry, in order to lay Siege to that Place, having with him 16 Ships of the Line, beſides Frigates.

The Officers of the Army of the Empire, who are Priſoners at Magdeburgh, having received no Pay ſince the Firſt of June laſt, are in a ſtarving Condition, and have wrote ſeveral Letters to the Imperial Commiſſaries of War, without any Redreſs.

There is Advice over Land from the Eaſt-Indies, that Proviſions were ſo ſcarce with the French, that they were obliged to melt down their Plate, and even their Shoe and Knee Buckles, to obtain the Neceſſaries of Life.

Letters from Paris adviſe, that ſince the French have poſſeſſed themſelves of Ziegenhain, poſitive Orders have been ſent to M. Broglio, to make an Irruption into the Electorate of Hanover, coſt what it will, and raiſe large Contributions, in order to make the Engliſh repent of their unjuſt and ridiculous Propoſals of Peace, which, it is added, have ſtung the French King to the Quick.

According to the laſt Advices from Francfort, whatever Inclination the French Army may have to get Footing in Hanover, it cannot be done without coming to a general Engagement; and the French themſelves are not without their Fears for the Iſſue of a Battle.

Theſe Advices from Francfort further add, that ſince the Departure of the Count de St. Germain, a Kind of Jealouſy, and ſome ſharp Diſputes, having ariſen between ſeveral French Officers; and the Loſs which his Succeſſor the Chevalier de Muy ſuſtained on the 31ſt ult. being more conſiderable than it was at firſt ſuppoſed to be; the French Miniſtry had repreſented to the King the fatal Conſequences that might reſult from the Loſs of ſuch an able General as the Count de St. Germain; and that in Conſequence thereof his Majeſty had determined to put him again at the Head of the Corps he commanded; and that Orders for that Purpoſe had actually been ſent to him at Aix-la-Chapelle, where he has been ever ſince he left the Army.

By a Letter from the Allied Army, of the 20th Inſt. we are informed, that according to the Rout ſettled, the Brigade of Guards were expected to join the Army in three Days.

By a Veſſel arrived in the River from Stettin, we learn that the Goſport Man of War, with the Fleet from the Sound, had put into a Port in Norway, by contrary Winds; and having received Intelligence of a Privateer, with three Prizes, lying under the Land, the Captain manned all his Boats, and cut out the ſaid Privateer, and all her Prizes.

The Blenheim Man of War of 90 Guns is building at Woolwich on ſuch Dimenſions, that ſhe will be equal to a Firſt Rate.

The laſt Letters from Elſineur of the 12th Inſt. mention, that 8 Daniſh men of War, and 2 Frigates, were then cruizing off the Iſland of Bornholm; but they had no Account of the Ruſſian Fleet.

Same Day a Number of Cannon and Muſket Balls were ſhipped in Lighters at the Tower Wharff, to be put on board the Tranſport Veſſels that are going abroad with the Troops.

The Tranſports which have lain ſo long at Deptford, are fallen down to the Nore, in order to take on board Sir Robert Rich's Dragoons, and three Regiments of Foot.

Two Veſſels laden with Corn from Sicily, are arrived at Genoa; the Captains of which reported, that a Corſican Felucca, with a Death's Head in her Colours, had been taken by two Neapolitan Galleys, and carried into Naples, where the Crew and Maſter were ſent Priſoners to the Fort of Stephano.

His Holineſs, upon the Arrival of 265 Jeſuits at Civita Vecchia, and the Apprehenſion of having more of thoſe Gueſts, has ordered the Engliſh College of Montferratto to be cleared for their Reception. The Neapolitan Forces on the Frontiers of the Eccleſiaſtical State are making the neceſſary Diſpoſitions for their March, which occaſions various Speculations.

There being Advice by the laſt Mail that Marſhal Broglio had received poſitive Orders to riſk a Battle, the News of a general Engagement is hourly expected.

After all the Reports of additional Reinforcements to be ſent from hence to Germany, it is pretty certain, that no more Troops are to go thither; ſo that whatever Embarkations may be now going forward, muſt be deſtined for ſome other Parts.

There has been, and ſtill continues, a ſevere Preſs for Seamen; very few belonging to the Fleets lately arrived in the River have been ſpared.

His Pruſſian Majeſty has demonſtrated by his March of 20 German Miles in four Days, with an Army of 50,000 Men, and upwards of 2000 Waggons, over the Elbe, the Spree, the Neiſs, the Queiſs, and the Bober, to Bautzen, that it was not the well-judged Motions of Marſhal Daun, which hindered him before from going into Sileſia. Of this, if there could be any Doubt, his Pruſſian Majeſty has given ſtill a farther Proof; for having given by his Motion a Suſpicion to the Enemy, that he would turn again upon Dreſden, he marched ſuddenly, without the leaſt Interruption to Lignitz, where he was encamped when the laſt Poſt came away.

His Pruſſian Majeſty made a Feint, as if he would have turned again upon Dreſden, which occaſioned Marſhal Daun to halt, and thereby gave his Majeſty an Opportunity, by a quick March, to fall upon the Army of General Laudohn. Marſhal Daun was within four Miles when this Blow was ſtruck, between Lignitz and Parchwitz.

We hear the Judge of the Court of Admiralty of a certain Iſland in the Weſt-Indies is ſuperceded; he having, on Proof of a Depoſition, taken a Purſe of 800 Piſtoles for clearing a Dutch Sloop, brought in by one of His Majeſty's Ships.

The Duke of Cumberland was ſo well recovered on Thurſday, that he took an Airing on Windſor Foreſt in his Poſt-chariot.

Sept. 2. There are private Letters from Magdebourg, which give us to underſtand, that if either Prince Ferdinand of Brunſwic is ſo fortunate as to beat the French in a general Engagement, or, by the Junction of all his Reinforcements, finds himſelf ſtrong enough to detach 20 Squadrons of Horſe and Dragoons, and a proportionable Number of Battalions, to join Gen. Holſen in Saxony, there will be a very fair Proſpect of finiſhing the War ſucceſsfully this Campaign.

According to a Variety of Letters from Paris, by the Way of Bruſſels, the general Officers who have lately quitted the French Army, complain loudly of the haughty and inſupportable Temper of Marſhal Broglio, who is ſo poſitive in his own Schemes, and ſo partial to his own Dependants, that the oldeſt and moſt experienced Generals, who are not of that Number, find it impoſſible to ſerve with any Degree of Eaſe, or Proſpect of giving Satisfaction.

Letters from Paris mention, that the Marquis de Choiſeuil, a Couſin of the Miniſtry and Secretary of State of that Name, has been taken up, and ſent to an unknown Priſon, for talking too openly againſt the Meaſures of the Government.

There is ſomething peculiarly noble in the laſt Repreſentation of the Parliament of Rouen; in which they tell the King, he is Maſter of their Lives, but not of their Conſciences and Honour.

The Edicts were indeed regiſtered. But by what Means was that Point carried? Why, by the cloſeting of Members, and the bialling of four of them to act contrary to what they had declared to be their Duty.

Thus, in Acts of Oppreſſion, we ſee even abſolute Power can be made to fear the Application of Means that are openly barbarous. France is an enlightened, tho', unfortunately for her, an enſlaved Nation, and one hazardous Exceſs, might unite them for their Redemption, eſpecially at a Time when the Inſtruments of Tyranny, their mercenary Soldiers, are moſtly out of the Kingdom.

How happy would they have been, to have been the Foreſeers of ſuch Evils as they now impotently reſiſt, and are made bitterly to feel. And what an Example ſhould it prove to us of the great Miſeries of Slavery, and of the Bleſſings we enjoy from a legal Conſtitution.

To be Maſters of Fortune, Opinion and Life, are Advantages that, perhaps, we are peculiar in the true Enjoyment of. And the ſlaveries that we ſee ariſe for the Want of them in other Nations, ought to ſtamp on our Hearts ſuch Impreſſions of their Value, as no Practices ſhould weaken, nor any Length of Time ſhould remove.

If there are of our Nation thoſe who ſtand in Need of ſuch Warning, or who are baſe enough to be willing to become the Betrayers of Liberty; let them learn Precaution from attending to the Calamities of our Foes, and Virtue from the glorious but impotent Exertion of it in Frenchmen; a People whoſe worſt Practices we are prone to adopt, but whoſe beſt we are too apt to overlook, as is evident from Inſtances out of Number.

According to Letters from Liſbon, the Exile of the King of Portugal's three natural Brothers, whoſe Credit ſeemed to be ſo well eſtabliſhed, is aſcribed to a Diſcovery of ſome Connections between them and the Friends of the late Duke d'Aveiro, executed for high Treaſon.

Dublin, September 10. A Letter by Monday's Poſt from Waterford, dated Saturday laſt, ſays; "Laſt Night one of the Rockets which were fired on Account of the Victory gained by the King of Pruſſia over General Laudohn, on the 15th paſt, fell on a Quantity of Flax, or other combuſtible Matter, on board a Galley called the Anne, from Boſton, and ſuddenly ſet the Veſſel all in a Flame, and in leſs than 15 Minutes ſhe was blown up, as it is ſuppoſed, by a large Quantity of Gunpowder which lay in the Steerage of ſaid Veſſel. The unhappy Man, who conducted ſaid Diverſion, periſhed, together with the whole Crew, being 12 in Number. The Cupola of our Exchange has ſince fallen down, and daſhed an adjoining Houſe to the Ground. Nothing can figure the Horror of the mangled Bodies. Several Boats on the River were ſunk and damaged by aſſiſting ſaid Veſſel. Many of our Gentlemen, and others, are greatly hurt, by endeavouring to ſave the Effects of the Veſſel. The Damages are variouſly computed, but the loweſt Eſtimation is 4300 l. excluſive of the Damage done to private Buildings."

Extract of a private Letter from London, September 4.

"The Officer who brought over the Invalids, Women and Children, from Germany, had an unlimited Letter of Credit from the Marquis of Granby, to give every Woman a Guinea, every Child a Guinea, and every Woman with Child a Guinea and a Half."

NEW-YORK, November 17.

Yeſterday his Majeſty's Ship Dover, Capt. Pearſall, arrived from Portſmouth, with the ſeveral Tranſports under her Convoy, having on board 2000 Soldiers.

By a Veſſel from Hamburgh, which ſhe left the 1ſt or 2d of October (being very late from Germany) we are told, there had been no general Action between Prince Ferdinand and the French, the latter retreating, it was thought, on Account of the Seaſon, and Want of Supplies, whilſt the former was ſtrongly advancing.---There was nothing material from the King of Pruſſia's Army.

Monday laſt being the Anniverſary of the Birth of our Moſt Gracious Sovereign King GEORGE, then entering into the 78th Year of his Age, the ſame was obſerved here, with the uſual Demonſtrations of Loyalty and Joy.

The ſame Day one Moſes Vinter, belonging to a North-Carolina Veſſel, taxed one Richard Cope, belonging to a Maryland Veſſel, with ſtealing a Pair of Breeches; which the ſaid Cope reſented, and ſtripped to his Skin, and to Blows they went, near Coenties Pier, when in leſs than a Minute, Cope fell down, and died; the ſaid Vinter ſurrendered himſelf, and is now in Cuſtody: The Coroner's Inqueſt was ſummoned, and returned their Verdict Tueſday Evening laſt, Manſlaughter. Vinter is to have his Trial the third Tueſday in January, at the Supream Court.

By a Veſſel juſt arrived from Jamaica, we have the public Prints till the 4th of October, by which we find that the Negroe Rebellion was not then entirely ſuppreſſed, but was in a fair Way for it.

Tueſday laſt Captain Hunter arrived here from Madeira, in ſix Weeks: The 2d of September, on his Voyage from hence, he was taken in Lat. 41: 30, Lon. 28, by a Privateer Brig from Bayonne, of 8 Guns, and 80 Men, but ranſomed his Sloop for about 500 £ Sterling: A few Days before, the above Privateer took a Ship from Newfoundland, belonging to Poole, Munday, Maſter, bound for Liſbon, with 4000 Quintals of Fiſh, and ſent her into Port, beſides one or two other ſmall Prizes that were ranſomed: The Privateer had been but 18 Days from Bayonne.

PHILADELPHIA, November 19.

On the Firſt Inſtant the Brig King of Pruſſia, Captain Stevenſon, from Anguilla for this Port, foundered at Sea, about 50 Leagues to the Southward of our Capes, having had a violent Gale of Wind for ſome Days before. The Ship went down ſo ſuddenly, that two of the Hands were drowned, before they could be got into the Boat with the reſt.

of the People, who were taken up the same Day, and carried to Virginia, by a Vessel bound in there.

Sunday last Captain Morton arrived here in 15 Days from Halifax; by whom we have Advice, that the Vessels had sailed from thence for Louisbourg, for the last Load of Guns, &c. from that Place; so that it is thought the Fortifications there are, by this Time, intirely destroyed.

 This Evening will be sold at Mr. DUNLAP's AUCTION, a curious Collection of Paintings, Mezzotinto Pictures, framed and glaized; and sundry valuable Byebooks.

From the GENTLEMAN's MAGAZINE, for June 1760.

IN my Letter publiſhed in your laſt Magazine, I conſidered the Caſe of a Lameneſs from ſome violent Strain, which produced ſuch an Extenſion of ſome of the Muſcles as rendered the Part affected incapable of its eaſy and proper Motion.

I ſhall here give you my Thoughts of a Lamneneſs reſulting from a contrary State of the Muſcles affected, viz. ſuch a fixed Contraction of them, as renders the Part they are connected with immoveable.

It may lead us into a right Notion of the Cauſe of this Diſeaſe, if we conſider, that every Fibre, Veſſel, Membrane, and Muſcle of the Body, which is dry, rigid, contracted, and immoveable, becomes ſuch through the Want of Particles of Fluid in their Interſtices, ſufficient to keep them in their natural State of Diſtention, and Mobility, or Moveableneſs.

This Want of Fluid in their Interſtices (as I apprehend) is occaſioned by a viſcid State of the Blood's Obſtructions in the Courſe of its Circulation; and a deficient Secretion of the Lymph from it.

The internal Remedies I do not now take into Conſideration; but it may be obſerved, that thoſe outward Applications are proper, which can fill the Interſtice of the contracted Veſſels and Muſcles, with ſuch a Fluid as will bring them to their natural Diſtention, and render them duly diſtractile and moveable.

I ſhall now acquaint you with an external Remedy, which has been very effectual for recovering the Uſe of a Limb that had long been diſabled by a fixed Contraction of ſome of the Muſcles.

Many Years ago (while I lived at Yeovill in Somerſetſhire) my Advice was deſired for a poor Man's Child, a Boy about eight or nine Years of Age, one of whoſe Legs was contracted more than when a Perſon is ſitting in a Chair: He could not ſtretch it out, or move it; neither could it be extended by any other, without an Injury to the Part affected.

I preſcribed a relaxing Liniment, of which Currier's Oil was one chief Ingredient; and ordered the Parts affected to be gently rubbed with it, but it was of no great Service.

The probable juſt Conſequences of this poor Boy's living without the Uſe of that Limb, very much moved my Pity; and, while I was conſidering what further might be done for his Relief; it came into my Mind that the Glovers of the Town brought their Lamb and Kid-ſkins (which were dry, ſtiff, and hard) to be ſoft and ſupple as Gloves, by rubbing them with a Liquor made with the Yolks of Eggs and Water.

Hereupon I reaſoned thus with myſelf, viz. Since this Egg-liquor is ſo efficacious in removing Contractions from the Parts of dead animal Fibres, Veſſels, and Membranes (by Art made dry, ſtiff, and hard) why may it not be as effectual, when ſufficiently applied to living animal Fibres, Veſſels and Membranes in a State of Contraction? And, reſolved to try its Efficacy in the Caſe of this poor Boy,

I ordered the contracted Parts of his Leg to be gently rubbed two or three Times a Day with the Egg-liquor, and, by this Means, he eaſily recovered the perfect Uſe of his Leg.

Take the Yolk of a new laid Egg, let it be beaten with a Spoon to the greateſt Thinneſs, then, by a Spoonful at a Time, add three Ounces of pure Water, agitating the Mixture continually, that the Egg and Water may be well incorporated.

This Liquor may be applied to the Parts contracted cold, or only Milk-warm, by a gentle Friction for a few Minutes, three or four Times a Day.

This Remedy I have ſince adviſed in like Caſes, and with the like happy Succeſs, and others to whom I have communicated it, have found the ſame Advantage from it in ſuch Caſes.

And as this Communication may be uſeful to Perſons lame by a Contraction of ſome Muſcles of the Body, I hope it will be acceptable to you, and to the Public, from

Sir, Yours &c. THE. LOBB.

Bagnio-Court, Newgate-ſtreet.

From the BOSTON EVENING-POST.

As it is the Duty of every Britiſh Subject to be thoughtful of the Britiſh Intereſt, ſo if the few following Hints may be of Service to His Majeſty's Colonies in North-America, it will afford a real Pleaſure to PHILOPOLITES.

THE glorious Time is now arrived, when ALL America, North of theſe Colonies, even to the Pole, is become the Property of the Britiſh Crown; and our perfidious and cruel Enemies, the French and Indians, are become Subjects to the mild Government of the Britiſh Sceptre: But all human Affairs are fluctuating, and no one knows how the preſent War in Europe may terminate, or how much of our late Acquiſitions here, the Britiſh Crown may be obliged to give back to France; I would therefore propoſe to the Conſideration of the Perſon or Perſons in Power, that as we have now the Opportunity, without the Hazard of being moleſted, to explore our Rivers to their Fountain Heads, ſo proper Surveyors and Chain-men be ſent forth as ſoon as the Rivers are frozen, to purſue this Buſineſs. The River Connecticut was ſurveyed by Kellog and Chandler, Anno 1737, ſo high as Number 4. Therefore what is wanting, is to proceed from thence to the Fountain Head by Lake Memorobka, and from thence to ſaid Lake, and through it to the River St. Francis, which iſſues out of ſaid Lake, and ſo down ſaid River to its Mouth at St. Laurence River; or it would be better to begin at the Mouth of St. Francis River, and end at Number 4, if there was an able Surveyor, with good Inſtruments, now at Montreal; and as Major Rogers has been in this Track, he would be a proper Perſon to conduct the Surveyor and Chain-men.

Quenebec River is already well deſcribed as far as General Winſlow's Forces went, therefore what is wanting this Way to reach St. Laurence River, is to proceed from thence up the Stream that leads to Amaguntick Pond, to the Head thereof, and from thence to ſaid Pond, and thro' it to the River Chaudiere, which iſſues out of ſaid Lake, and ſo down ſaid River to its Mouth at St. Laurence River. This Way to Quebec is vaſtly nearer than any other from theſe Governments; and Fort Halifax, on Quenebec River, is as far North as the moſt Northern Part of Lake Champlain; and the Carrying-place, at the Head of Quenebec River to Amaguntick Pond (at which Place a Fort ought immediately to be built) is not more than 70 Miles from Quebec. And the Lands on Quenebec River, from Fort Halifax to its Fountain Head, ought to be filled with Inhabitants as faſt as poſſible, which would make a ſtrong Barrier againſt any future Encroachments of the French, ſhould Quebec ever get into their Hands again.

As our former Kings, who granted Charters to ſome of theſe Colonies, were pleaſed to declare in ſaid Charters, that the principal End of theſe Plantations was the winning the Indians to the Knowledge and Obedience of the only true GOD and SAVIOUR of Mankind, and the Chriſtian Faith. And whereas theſe pious Intentions have been ſhamefully neglected, though, as his late Royal Highneſs the Prince of Wales's Chaplain, Dr. Aſcough, well obſerved, it ought not to have been done, even in civil Policy, and that he thought it clear Reaſoning, that if the French, who never were behind us in Policy, think no Pains too much to make Papiſts of the Indians, it may deſerve ſome Care and Expence in us to make Proteſtants of them, and by that Means fix them in the Britiſh Intereſt. I would therefore further propoſe, that the French Miſſionaries that may now be reſident among any of the Five Nations, or other Indian Tribes in Alliance with us, be ſent Home to France by the firſt Opportunity, and that Engliſh Miſſionaries, of ſober and unblameable Characters, be, as ſoon as poſſible, ſent forth among them, with ſuitable Salaries to encourage them in ſo charitable and arduous a Work. It might be well in the Government at Home to take this Matter under their wiſe Conſideration, which may be ſo much for the Britiſh Intereſt, and the future Good of the poor Heathen round about us, who ſit in the Regions of Darkneſs, and the Shadow of Death.

Nurenberg, Aug. 9. The French have required the Circle of Franconia to carry their Magazines in that Country, with all Diligence, to Hanau and Frankfort. The Auſtrian Artillery that was at Forcheim, with the Stores belonging to it, is immediately to be ſent to Prague, from whence it will be forwarded to Sileſia.

Florence, July 5. It is reported, that a Neapolitan Frigate, which had on board the King of Spain's Coaches, being overtaken in a Calm, has been ſunk by four Algerine Chebecs. The Crew and Paſſengers amounted to 500 Men.

The Proceedings of the Corſican Malcontents give Room to ſuſpect that they have a more conſiderable Head than Paoli. It is ſaid the Genoeſe, who are determined to cruſh them, intend to invite a foreign General to command their Forces.

Paris, Aug. 1. On the 29th ult. at Six o'Clock in the Morning, a Captain of a Ship of War was ſeized at his Lodgings, by Virtue of a Letter de Cachet, and carried off, no body knows whither.

Leipſick, July 28. The whole City of Lauban, in Luſatia, has, by Accident, been reduced to Aſhes; the Ovens which had been erected there by Marſhal Daun, in his March towards Sileſia, were the Cauſe of it.

Naples, July 29. It is currently reported at Court, that a new Augmentation is to be made in the King's Troops, and that the Orders for this Purpoſe will be ſpeedily iſſued to the ſeveral Colonels of the Army.

LONDON, September 2.

A few Days ſince a Bailiff and his Follower arreſted a Man in Gravel-lane, Southwark, who begged they would give him Leave to go and ſee his Wife before he went to Priſon; which they (going a little out of the Road of their Profeſſion) conſented to. He no ſooner got into the Houſe, than he ſlipt up Stairs, went out at a Garret Window, and climbed up to the Ridge of the Houſe; from whence, taking up ſome Tiles, he prepared for a Siege. The Bailiffs got a Ladder, with Intent to ſcale the Walls, but the Fellow plied them ſo well with his Ammunition from above, that they could make no Progreſs. At length, however, the Follower got up ſeven or eight Rounds of the Ladder, but a well directed Tile ſent him quickly to the Bottom again, to the no ſmall Diverſion of ſome Hundreds of Spectators, among whom was a recruiting Serjeant, who thought ſomething might be made of the Affair, and told the Man, if he would inliſt, the King ſhould bail him; the Propoſal was gladly accepted, and the Affair concluded very properly; a Subject was reſcued from Jail, and His Majeſty got a Soldier.

ST. JOHN'S (in ANTIGUA) October 21.

The Snow Kitty, Capt. Ellis, and Sloop General Durore, Capt. Bethel, arrived here Yeſterday, in 12 Weeks from London. On Friday laſt, about 25 Leagues to Windward, they were attacked by two French Privateers, of 10 and 12 Guns; and after a cloſe and ſmart Engagement, which laſted near three Hours, the Enemy was obliged to ſheer off, with conſiderable Loſs. The Kitty had 10 Guns and 25 Men, and the Durore 8 Guns and 19 Men. They both ſuffered greatly in their Rigging, but had only one of two Men ſlightly wounded, whilſt the Enemy were ſeen to throw many dead Bodies overboard. During the latter Part of the Action the Durore was obliged to lie by, for want of Powder; otherwiſe it is thought they could have obliged, at leaſt, one of the Privateers to ſtrike.

"Commodore Moore was moſt graciouſly received by his Majeſty, and his Conduct highly approved by the Admiralty. The Commodore, at high Change, publickly declared in Lloyd's Coffee-houſe, That he had been informed that the Merchants intended to complain of his Conduct to the Lords of the Admiralty, and that he wiſhed they would; he being ſenſible he had acted properly and conſiſtently, whilſt he commanded on the Leeward Iſlands Station. The Merchants were ſilent for ſome Time; at laſt Mr. M--tl--d aſked him ſome Queſtions concerning the Number of Captures the French had made, &c. which were anſwered by Mr. Moore; and then one of the moſt conſiderable Underwriters (whoſe Name I have forgot) publickly told Mr. Moore, that he had loſt more Money than any Perſon in the Coffee-houſe, and that every Underwriter there was ſenſible of it; but that for his Part he was now ſenſible he (the Commodore) had done the utmoſt in his Power; and that he would anſwer for it every one elſe thought ſo too; and that the Reaſon of their being diſcontented was owing to their not having the Matter properly ſtated before."

WILLIAMSBURG, November 7.

This Week arrived in Town Capt. Van Braam, of the old Virginia Regiment, being releaſed from a Confinement of ſix Years in Canada, by the Reduction of that Country. He confirms to us the Accounts we received ſome Time ago, of the great Scarcity that prevailed in Canada, before its Surrender; that Wine was ſold at eight Guineas a Gallon, Brandy at four Guineas a Quart, a Pair of Shoes for three Guineas, and other Goods in Proportion. During Part of the Time he was confined in Goal, he was allowed a Pound of Bread, and a Pound of Horſe Fleſh, per Day; but ſuch was the Quality of his Proviſions, that for four Months he lived upon Bread and Water only.

The Nightingale Man of War, Capt. Campbell, on a Cruize from New-York, is put into Hampton Road.

BOSTON, November 17.

Yeſterday Sen'night, about 8 o'Clock in the Morning, a ſmall Shock of an Earthquake was perceived by many People in this Town: It was alſo felt in ſeveral Towns for 30 Miles Diſtance, and the Shake was pretty conſiderable, attended with a rumbling Noiſe.

Laſt Thurſday Night, being very dark and ſtormy Weather, Capt. Kent, in a Sloop belonging to Charles-Town, bound in, run foul of a Schooner from the Eaſtward, laden with Wood, who carried away his Bowſprit, and did him other Damage: Four of Captain Kent's People jumped on board the Schooner, thinking the Sloop was ſinking. They could ſee nothing of the Sloop the next Morning, by which 'tis feared ſhe ſunk.

Thurſday next (the 20th Inſtant) is appointed by Authority to be obſerved as a Day of Public Thankſgiving in the Colony of Rhode-Iſland.

Thurſday, the 27th Inſtant, is appointed by Authority to be obſerved as a Day of general Thankſgiving throughout the Province of New-Hampſhire.

Friday laſt the Captains Nicholls and Davis arrived here, in 20 odd Days from Quebec, who inform, that in coming down the River they ſaw ſeveral Veſſels bound up, in particular five large Ships, ſuppoſed to be Store-ſhips from England; alſo a Brig, a Schooner and Sloop, about 20 Leagues above Gaſpey, but ſpoke with none of them. Captain Davis came very near the Iſland of Anticoſta, but ſaw no Veſſel aſhore there.

Yeſterday Capt. Tozer, who ſailed from hence for Quebec ſome Time ago, put back: He was obliged, by Streſs of Weather, to put into Louiſbourg, from which Place he ſailed for the River 38 Days ago, but meeting with contrary Winds, and bad Weather, in which he received conſiderable Damage, he was obliged to return hither.

By a Veſſel in 30 Days from Guadaloupe, that arrived here Yeſterday, we learn, That an Embargo is laid on all the Shipping at Martinico, as well Dutchmen as Privateers, the Inhabitants being under great Apprehenſion of an Invaſion from the Engliſh, and were putting the Place in the beſt Poſture of Defence poſſible.

By a Veſſel that arrived here laſt Week from Halifax, we learn, that Lord Colvill, with 13 Men of War, were arrived there from Quebec. Moſt of the Ships are to Winter at Halifax.

NEW-YORK, November 20.

We hear 500 of the Soldiers lately arrived under Convoy of the Dover, are to be quartered on L. Iſland, the Reſt in the Jerſeys, &c. and that ſome of the Tranſports lately arrived will carry the French Priſoners to Old France inſtead of the Veſſels intended for that Purpoſe.

GENTLEMEN, October 22, 1760.

"I embrace this Opportunity to let you know of our Misfortune. On the 7th Inſtant we met with a very hard Gale of Wind, from the E. N. E. and N. E. in the Latitude of 37, 26, North, and Longitude 73, 42, Weſt, which obliged us to lie to; but we lying to ſo dangerouſly, and the Sea conſtantly making a Breach over us, and filling our Decks, we were obliged to ſcud, and under Neceſſity of lighting us, by clearing our Decks of the Spars and Plank, and that on the next Day, being the 8th Inſtant, the Wind ſhifted at N. W. and then at W. N. W. in the Latitude of 35, 9, North, and Longitude 71, 10, Weſt, the Wind ſtill continuing, and rather increaſing than abating, was forced, for the Preſervation of Life, to throw overboard four large Guns, three Swivels, and all the Gun Carriages, the Oars out of the Cranes, two and an Half Barrels of Beef, and ſtarted five Butts of Water out of the Hold; and then on Sunday, the 12th Inſtant, ſcudding about E. S. E. at the Rate of about eight Knots, at Half paſt Four, A. M. ſtruck on the Rocks at the Northweſt Part of the Iſland, and beat over ſeveral Rocks, after which came to Anchor in about five Fathom Water a-head, and about two and a Half Fathom a-ſtern, without receiving any perceptible Damage; at which Place we continued, till ſeveral of the Inhabitants of this Iſland came to our Aſſiſtance, and ſafely conveyed us to Anchor, at a Place called Mangrove Bay; no Neceſſaries being to be had in Mangrove Bay, we were obliged to come to St. George's-Town, and applied to one Mr. Jonathan Burch, of that Town, and the whole Neceſſaries amounted to 174 milled Dollars; and this 26th Inſtant we are intended to ſail from this Port, to proceed to St. Chriſtophers, in order to get four more Guns. All the Officers in general in high Spirits, and in good Health. We are in Hopes, with the Bleſſing of God, to make our Loſſes up. I am your humble Servant.

JAMES OMAN.

PHILADELPHIA, November 27.

Captain Campbell, in a Snow from St. Chriſtophers for this Port, was taken by a French Privateer, and afterwards retaken, and carried back to that Place.

Arrived there from this Place, the Captains Woolrich, Vance, Outerbridge, and Simpſon.

From Jamaica we learn, that Martial Law ceaſed in that Iſland about the 30th of Auguſt; but that it was put in Force again about the Middle of September, on Account of ſome freſh Diſturbances in Weſtmoreland Pariſh.

Captain Card, from Rhode-Iſland, on the 17th Inſtant, off the Eaſt End of Long-Iſland, ſaw Captain Ebenezer Simmonds, in a Sloop from that Place for Maryland, a little Way a-head of him, when ſuddenly his Veſſel was ſtruck by a Whale, by which ſhe ſunk in a few Minutes; there were ſeven Hands on board, two of which, Silveſter Simmonds, and Jeremiah Brown, with great Difficulty (the Weather being very ſtormy) were taken up by Captain Card, but the others were loſt with the Veſſel.

Laſt Week a Flat-Man was found dead in his Cabbin, at one of the Wharffs of this City, ſuppoſed to be occaſioned by a Pot of Coals he had there, and the Hatch being laid over, by which he was ſtifled for Want of Air.

"Yeſterday were interred the Remains of WILLIAM MASTERS, Eſq; who was one of the Repreſentatives of this City in Aſſembly, and a Provincial Commiſſioner, for ſeveral Years.------He was not more remarkable for his ſuperior Fortune, than for his firm Adherence to the Conſtitution of his Country, and the common Rights of Mankind."

 This Evening will be ſold at Mr. DUNLAP's AUCTION, a curious Collection of Bye-books, by the beſt Authors, entirely new.
